By Dianne Bremer

Walter and Betty May accompanied Ralph and Norma Unger to Topeka where they attended memorial services for Judge Marvin Meyer. His wife, Ruth, still lives in Topeka. Marvin and Ruth and sons were former Oberlin residents while he was a partner in the law firm of Wolfe, Bremer, Meye, and Morgan and later became the District Judge of the 17th Judicial District, which included Decatur County. Marvin's mother was the late Martha (May) Meyer.

Elaine Fikan and Lorene Franklin, Atwood, were met by their cousin, Wilma May, for coffee at the Frontier Restaurant on Thursday.

Greta Wendelin returned to Seward, Neb., on Thursday where she will be a senior this fall at Concordia University. She will be involved with a speech camp in the upcoming week with classes starting the following Monday.

Craig and Karen Larson hosted a birthday lunch at their home on Friday honoring Wayne Larson on his 83rd birthday. Additional guests were Lois Larson, Monica Larson, Jeff and Kim Wickersham and Calvin of Council Bluffs, Iowa, and Taylor and Ashley Duysen, Gillette, Wyo.

Wilbur May was honored with a going away breakfast Saturday morning at the Frontier Restaurant in Oberlin. Joining Wilbur were his sons, John May, Lummi Island, Wash., and Jim May; Walter and Betty May, Rhonda May and Dan Nedland, Cameron, Hunter, and Elizabeth, Roland and Pam May, Zach and Hannah, Robert May, Roger May and Ryan, and Pastor and Mrs. Rick Langness and Esther. Wilbur then accompanied John May home to Lummi Island where he will be living with his son and family. Jim May, formerly of Louisiana, will be living in Wilbur's home in Oberlin. The Richard May family was unable to attend since they were moving Danica to Lawrence where she will be a freshman at Kansas University this fall.

Zane and Gladys Geis, Ryan and Stacy Duysen, Taylor, Ashley, and Madison, Jeff and Kim Wickersham and Calvin, Kevin Geis and Emma, Ames, Iowa, Keith Geis, Wheatland, Wyo., and Connie Green and Jennia, Williamsburg, Va., attended a family dinner hosted by Craig and Karen Larson at their home on Saturday. The families also enjoyed dinner together at the home of Zane and Gladys Geis on Sunday.

Ron and Nancy (Mines) Baumfalk, Craig and Vicky Baumfalk, and Chuck and Carol Van Ert, Steven and Sandy, Aurora, Colo., and Connie (Mines) Gosler, Mesa, Ariz., left Sunday after spending a few days visiting Elwood and Elaine Mines and enjoying the Decatur County Fair.

Joan Loughmiller, James and Chris, arrived Thursday to visit her mother, Carolyn Muirhead, and attend the Decatur County Fair. They returned home Sunday afternoon.

Don and Ann Mines drove to McPherson on Saturday to attend a party for their grandson, Jared Mines, 6th birthday. After spending the night at the Joe Mines home, they returned home Sunday.

Konnie Green and Jennia, Williamsburg, Va., will be spending a week visiting her parents, Zane and Gladys Geis, and sister, Karen Larson, and family.

Esther Ready and son, Nick Chomowicz, New York City, were visitors of John and Dianne Bremer and Jessica this past week while they were here visiting her parents, John and Muriel Ready and enjoying the Decatur County Fair.
