

Alumni hold annual banquet

Decatur Community High School Alumni flocked to Oberlin over the weekend for the annual banquet which was held at The Gateway. Many anniversary classes also met for reunions on Saturday afternoon.

President Gaylen Huntley welcomed alumni and guests and Mike McVay gave the invocation. The dinner, prepared by The Gateway staff, was served by the sophomore class to the oldest classes present, as well as the Class of 2007.

Gifts were presented to Edla Nelson Olson and Ruth Nicodemus Laidig, Class of 1932, who were the oldest alumni present. Crichton Roberts, Class of 1962, of Honolulu, Hawaii, traveled the farthest. Three generation families present included: Nolan May, Richard May and Walter May, and Cameron Nedland, Rhonda May and Walter May. Four-generation families were Breck Simonsson, Brian Simonsson, Sharon Bryan Slabaugh, and Opal Castle Bryan; also Terry Urban, Leslie Plotts, Gene Plotts and James Plotts.

Ken Shobe gave the Smick Memorial Loan report. The 2007 class was introduced by Breck Simonsson. After Stan McEvoy gave the objection to their admission to the alumni association and a rebuttal followed by Gary Fredrickson, the class was accepted.

Officers elected include: Rhonda May, president; Norbert Zander, vice president; Lee Franklin, secretary, and Tina Stacey Meitl, treasurer.

Joyce Meitl Morel presented a slide show of pictures from past year books, after which Mark Olson gave a report on the Decatur Community Educational Foundation. Musical entertainment was provided by Amy Fortin Carman and Angie Fortin. The singing of the "Alma Mater" closed the meeting.

Those who made reservations for the banquet follow with anniversary classes in bold face.

Jennings News

By Louise Cressler

Stan and Ramona Shaw attended the Alumni Banquet in Selden Saturday evening. On Monday they attended the Memorial Day services at the Selden Cemetery and then were luncheon guests of Carol Shaw of Selden.

The Jennings Alumni Banquet was not held in the Community Hall as stated on the invitations but instead was held in the Sunflower Senior Center Saturday evening.

A smaller crowd attended this year. Business meeting was held at 5 p.m. Carl Wahlmeier was elected president; Lewis Wahlmeier, vice president; Linda Wahlmeier, treasurer; and Barbara Brooks, secretary, for the coming year. The meal followed.

The Sunday community potluck dinner at Senior Center was enjoyed by approximately 70 people. Lots of good fellowship during and after the meal.

Jennings City Council will meet at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, June 7.

United Methodist Women will meet Wednesday, June 6, at the church.

The group will then go to Cedar Living Center for the birthday party. Helen Rhodes and Louise Cressler will furnish birthday cupcakes.

Chris McKenna of Jennings, a student at Fort Hays State University, placed third in public relations, non-profit-educational, at the Kansas Professional Communicators Conference held recently in Dodge City.
