SHERIFF'S BLOTTER

The Decatur County Sheriff's Office worked these calls recently:
• Information on complaints of criminal damage and domestic battery went to the county attorney, said Deputy Sheriff Patti Skubal, although no charges have been filed in either case.

A call came in around 8:23 a.m. on Wednesday, July 11, she said. Responding to the call at the Uehlin residence about four miles north of U.S. 36 on the Cemetery Road, she said, deputies found Melissa Uehlin, 32 at the house. Mrs. Uehlin told them her husband, Brad Uehlin, 34, had hit her.

Deputy Skubal said earlier, Mrs. Uehlin allegedly had run into a 1996 Ford pickup owned by Tahnee Sanders, 22, of Danbury, Neb., with her 1996 Ford pickup. Ms. Sanders was in the vehicle at the time at the Uehlin's house, she said.

There was about $4,000 in damage to the vehicles, Deputy Skubal said. Mrs. Uehlin could be facing charges of criminal damage to property and her husband charges of domestic battery.

• Worked an accident at 5:25 p.m. when Alesha Vahling, 28, hit a cow in the road in a 1997 Ford Taurus about 5 1/2 miles east of Oberlin on U.S. 36. There was no ticket given. Deputy Skubal said Ms. Vahling was injured, but she didn't have any information on how.

Correction

A story about Hannah Lincoln being accepted into the People to People World Leadership Forum in the June 20 issue of The Oberlin Herald said that she was a student at Wamego High School. She is a fifth-grader at West Elementary School in Wamego, but will earn high school credits while studying leadership and exploring some of the United States' most prominent monuments and institutions.
