

Come visit Chamber office

All in all things have been pretty slow at the Chamber Office. I suppose everyone is taking their vacation before school starts on Aug. 17. We have had a few people in and out looking for area telephone books and Kansas road maps. A few have just stopped in to say hello and to visit. If you are downtown, be sure to stop in at the Chamber Office and see what interesting and informative pamphlets we have on hand. Don't forget to call the Chamber with your reservation or for more information about the Potluck Picnic in the Park to be held at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Aug. 15. If the Chamber can be of assistance, call us at (785) 475-3441 or better yet come see us at 104 S. Penn Ave.

Jennings News

By Louise Cressler

Elmo Bailey, a resident of Cedar Living Center in Oberlin, fell Friday fracturing his hip. Arch Harman is in a swing bed at the Decatur County Hospital in Oberlin. Word was received Sunday that Laverne Shields, formerly of Jennings, died. She had been living at the Andbe Home in Norton. Graveside services will be held at 10 a.m. today (Wednesday) at the Jennings Cemetery. The community extends its sympathy to the family. Keith and Helen Muirhead enjoyed a visit from their grandson, Kolten Schulze of Salina, for a couple of days. Alice Wagoner was honored by her family coming over the weekend to help her celebrate her birthday, which was Sunday. There was a party for Becky Carter Saturday evening. Her birthday was July 26. During church services Sunday, Marge Hartzog reported on their trip with a stock trailer load of furniture, appliances and food to Greensburg. She showed pictures taken during the loading of goods and also pictures of parts of Greensburg hit by the tornado. The residents could still use donated large appliances such as washers, dryers, refrigerators, stoves and freezers. The community thanks Daryl and Marge for organizing the project and taking the trailer load down. City council will be meeting Thursday evening at the Sunflower Senior Center. Anyone is welcome to attend meetings. Brian and Westley Jennings of Solomon were weekend visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jennings. On Saturday evening Lila hosted a birthday dinner for Lawrence at the Frontier Cafe in Oberlin. Others present were Brett Jennings, James and Delores Jennings, Nadean Stoney, and Steve Carlton.
