

THE OBERLIN HERALD —

People in Our Community

Mary Lou Olson, society editor mlolson@nwkansas.com

Lonesa Wyatt of Victor, Colo., was a weekend guest of her daughter, Yvonne and Brad Burmaster and Aubrey. On Saturday, they attended the Loughry family reunion in Norton.

Mark and Brandon Hubbard; and Jessica Hubbard in Denver. They helped their grandson, Brandon, celebrate his 16th birthday. They also visited Kay's sister, Joyce Anderson, and family at Olathe.

Solko. Bridge highs were won by Carol Shirley, Leone Purton, Cynthia Matson and Annette Miller.

Ethel Railsback accompanied Jeff and Penny Hayward, Alex and Logan to Fort Collins, Colo., on July 25, where they were guests of Marian Railsback. On Thursday, the Haywards and Marian went to Water World in Denver. On Thursday evening, they were joined by Tom Railsback of Great Falls, Mont., and on Friday, they all attended a reception for Marian, who retired after working 32 years at Colorado State University in Fort Collins. Another cousin, Roy Railsback, of Idaho Springs, Colo., also attended. They returned to Oberlin on July 29.

Jeanette Brandt of New Braunfels, Texas, visited her sister, Kimberly Davis, over the weekend. She was en route home after visiting relatives in Colorado and friends in Omaha.

Blackrose Angus Ranch of Culbertson, Neb., owns two bulls which are listed in the 2007 Fall Sire Evaluation Report published by the American Angus AssociationSM in St. Joseph, Mo. Issued in both the spring and fall, the new report features the latest performance information available on 6,679 sires. This report provides both Angus breeders and commercial cattle producers using Angus genetics with accurate, predictable selection tools for improving their herd, according to Bill Bowman, American Angus Association director of performance programs. Black Rose Ranch is owned by Rob Spencer. His mother is the former Delphine Mines, a native of Oberlin.

Tim Wolters was a Thursday morning visitor of Elsie Wolters.

—Brunch Buffet, Sunday, Aug. 12, 11 a.m.-1:30 p.m. LandMark Inn. Call 475-2340 for reservations.

Eva Bryan was transferred to Community Hospital in McCook from Decatur County Hospital for observation on Sunday. She is recuperating from recent hip surgery. Among those who visited her in McCook were Elden and Detta Anderson, Dick and Donna Kelley, Oberlin; Elizabeth Fahrenholtz, Juanita, Neb.; and Dennis Barratt, Lincoln, Neb.

Jeanie Unger of Oberlin has returned home from the Fulbright Study Abroad tour in Argentina, which she was chosen to attend with 12 other Spanish teachers. Besides enjoying the people and culture, she also taught at a school for at-risk boys for a service project. She said her favorite place was the glaciers of Patagonia, the third-largest glacier mass in the world. She teaches Spanish at Rawlins County High School in Atwood.

Clyde and Esther Vernon of Frontenac and their daughter, Sandra Turley of Pittsburg, visited relatives and friends from last Sunday to Wednesday.

Carol Voss of Cambridge, Neb., and Rita and Skip Fuchs of Oxford, Neb., visited on Sunday afternoon with their uncle and aunt, Jerald and Elaine Leitner. Jerald Leitner went to Kearney, Neb., recently for a checkup, and found he had suffered a broken neck in a fall in February, so is now wearing a neck brace.

Jerald and Elaine Leitner attended the Leitner family reunion at the Elks Club in McCook on Saturday. On Tuesday their daughter, Karla Sullivan of Colby, took them to Kearney, Neb., where Mrs. Leitner was to undergo corrupted artery surgery.

Rita Pollnow and Norm Tilton of Davis, Calif., left Monday after visiting her mother, Louise Pollnow, and her sister, Sharon and Rusty Addleman, for 10 days. Mrs. Pollnow accompanied them for a visit to the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, then they visited his daughter, Colleen and Todd Stoddard, and family in Broomfield, Colo.

Donna (Kump) Tucker, a 1969 graduate of Decatur Community High School, writes that her latest compact disc is out. She presented a program for the Oberlin Arts and Humanities Commission in Oberlin and several people have asked about it. She said they can find it on her website, www.donnatucker.com, or go to www.cdbaby.com and type in her name. She is the daughter of Don and Jean Ann Kump of Cheney, formerly of Oberlin.

Winning highs in pinochle at Golden Age Center the past week were Ivis Hanson, Max Carman, Henry Edgett, Floyd Edgett, Doris Gilbert and Dorothy Moore. Lows went to Dorothy Moore, Henry Edgett, Donna Kent, Aleen Van Vleet, Ivis Hanson, Veanna Carman, Floyd Edgett and Elden Haas. Pitch highs were won by Henry Edgett and Floyd Edgett with lows going to Aleen Van Vleet and Barb

Howard and Sharon Kessinger of Marysville were Friday overnight guests at the LandMark Inn and visited friends in Oberlin before going on to Denver on Saturday for a family birthday party. He is a former editor of The Oberlin Herald and they are now owners of The Marysville Advocate.

Gail and Kay Marcuson returned home Tuesday, July 31, from a vacation in Colorado. They visited Diane and Chuck Newcom; Julie,

Schmicks Market ad printed to goodland separately

3x10.5 OBH

Headed back to school? Take us with you and get all the news from HOME.

Subscribe today!

Subscribers whose mailing address is in Decatur, Norton, Rawlins, Sheridan, Thomas and Red Willow counties $33
Elsewhere in Kansas $38
Elsewhere in the United States $42
Students in Kansas $27 • Students out of state $30

To order your subscription, fill out the coupon below and send it with payment to:

THE OBERLIN HERALD
170 S. Penn Ave. Oberlin, Kan. 67749

Name

Address

City..... State..... Zip.....

Hanging on for some cool fun!

OBERLIN SWIM CLUB MEMBERS romped in and around two giant inner tubes on Sunday night. The club finished up its season with an end-of-the-year picnic and party at the City Park and the pool. —Herald staff photo by Cynthia Haynes

Senator Pat Roberts 3 x 4.25
Ad printed separately to goodland at 85%
OBH