Lois Lamb, president and members of the Royal Neighbors

Thank you to the many friends that remembered us and honored our Mother with their sympathy in the gifts of food, memorials, flowers, kind words and prayers. We are privileged to live in such caring communities. We sincerely appreciated the service by Pastors Dan Carson and Scott Baker, the comforting guidance from Knodel Chapel and the fine meal served by the Wesleyan and First Christian Church ladies.
The Howland Families.

Thanks to all who came to visit, brought food, called, and sent cards and memorials and most of all kept us in your prayers during this difficult time. Your concern and support is greatly appreciated. God has blessed us with wonderful friends and family.
