

KAYLA ZODROW AND HEATHER GLODT, seniors at Decatur Community High, worked on a math problem at the Oberlin Invitational scholar bowl tournament held Saturday, Nov. 3, at the high school.

Colby wins Oberlin Scholar Bowl

By CINDY MURRAY
The Oberlin Invitational scholar bowl tournament was held November 3. Colby won the meet, followed by Golden Plains and Goodland.

Oberlin had two teams competing. Oberlin-red consisted of Heather Glodt, Rebecca Helm, Chris Larson, Melissa Hasty, and Kayla Zodrow.

The Oberlin-gray team consisted of Andy Dempewolf, Nathan Simonsson, Chenaniah Langness, Gage Reichert, Rory Wendelin, and Lacey Ream. Oberlin-red won two matches and lost six. Oberlin-gray won three and lost five. "It's always a relief to have the Oberlin Invitational done," Coach Marlene Moxter said. "I think they gained a lot of experience.

Maralyn Courange returned home Nov. 10 from Sturgis, S.D., where she was a houseguest of her daughter-in-law, Kim Ware and family. She made the acquaintance of her great-grandson, Elijah Cornelius. On Oct. 26, she attended the South Dakota Motorcross Association award banquet at Piedmont. Her grandsons, Korey and Kolten Ware, received plaques for fifth and second place.

Yearbooks arrive

Finally, the day is here. The 2007 yearbooks have arrived, and according to yearbook adviser Brenda Breth, "They are spectacular." The yearbook staff chose a movie theme for the book and features a movie title on every page. "It truly is as wonderful as I had imagined," said Mrs. Breth. "Each year we try to outdo the previous year, and we succeeded with the 2007 book." If you would like a copy, contact Mrs. Breth at the high school. The cost is $32.
