On Saturday, we had a lot of fun

just competing against a pretty good Hoxie team," said Coach Terry Ream. "We still didn't play as well as we can and let the game slip away from us at the end. I was proud at the way the girls bounced back after the way we struggled against Oakley Friday night."

The Lady Red Devils spring into action here against the Goodland Cowgirls starting at 6:30 p.m. Friday.

"Our tournament was really beneficial to us in that we know what to improve on," Ream said. "The tournament showed us how hard we need to work and are beginning to understand how to just play the game. We will keep working hard, keep improving, and we will strive to be as successful as we can the rest of the year."

The Lady Red Devils put the game into cruise control the second half allowing all players to get an opportunity for floor time.

The worn-out Jags could barely muster enough offense to keep up with the junior varsity in the final frames. Oberlin out scored Irwin 10-9 in the third period, then iced the cake, out scoring the Lady Jags 12-6 in the final period to capture the victory.

Oberlin advanced to play the Oakley Lady Plainsmen in the semifinals, a team that manhandled them in the first game of the season 65-34.

"We started the tournament against a team, James Irwin of Colorado Springs, that we really didn't know much about," said Coach Terry Ream. "After a slow start, we began to play okay and got a much-needed win. We got a lot of playing time for our bench players and they stepped up and played well."

The Jefferson Academy Jaguars of Broomfield, Colo., defeated the Decatur Community High boys basketball team 56-45 in the first round of the 39th annual Oberlin Invitational tournament Thursday.

Oberlin was led by Logan Fortin with 11 points followed by Lucas Juenemann with 10; Toby Peters, nine; Sam Stapp, eight; Cody Haas, six; and Cole May with one.

The Jags were led by shooting guard Xavier Lewis who had a game high 21 points, followed by Jared Jenkins, 16; Jason, Mihalein, seven; and Dan Dodson and Tommy Olson scored six each.

Oberlin jumped out to a quick 13-5 lead after the first quarter but inconsistent play, turnovers, and missed baskets started a serious second-half meltdown that cost the Red Devils the game.

Looking strong going into the locker room at the half with a 25-16 lead, Oberlin began to unravel the final two quarters, giving up basket after basket.

The cold shooting Red Devils only scored two baskets from the field in the third quarter.

As the Jags heated up the Red

Devils cooled down, leaving the home crowd little to cheer for.

"We got into early foul trouble," said Coach Greg Olson. "It caught up with us later in the game. We are still plagued by injuries, but we played hard. Jefferson Academy started shooting better late in the game and we just let this one slip away."

Jefferson was to face Quinter in the second round of the winners bracket of the tournament.

Oberlin dropped to the consolation round facing St. Francis.

The third quarter wasn't much better for Oberlin as the Indians out scored the Red Devils 17-12 cruising into the fourth quarter. The score was evenly matched in the fourth quarter 9-9 leaving 0-2 in the tournament.

"St. Francis took us out of the game in the second quarter," Coach Greg Olson said. "We tried, but couldn't overcome that deficit. The Indians played very well and kept us from scoring."

The Decatur Community High School boys basketball team was defeated by the Quinter Bulldogs 90-51 Friday, Jan. 11, in Oberlin.

The Red Devils saw four Bulldogs score in the double figures.

Lucas Juenemann was top scorer for Oberlin with 11 points. Toby Peters and Logan Fortin followed with nine points each. Jacob Fortin finished with eight points; Sam Stapp and Dakota Soderlund, six points each; and Josh Ritter, two points.

"Quinter shot the ball well," said Coach Greg Olson.

Matt Bird and Kenton Wolf led the Bulldogs with 17 points each; Brady Reed followed with 13 and Wittman 11 for Quinter, raising Quinter's record to 8-1.

The Bulldogs' bench scored 32 points, with Eddie Machen, eight; Kev Balluch and Luke Ochs, six each; Zack Nemechek, six; Scott Ochs, four; and Jordy Hargitt, two.

"We had one of those nights where nothing went into the basket," Olson said.

Quinter's full-court trapping defense caused the Red Devils trouble most of the night. After the Bulldogs had a substantial lead, Coach John Crist pulled the dogs off, but between Oberlin turnovers and poor shot selection the Red Devils could never get a solid point run going.

"We never gave up," Olson said. "We are looking forward to our Invitational tournament this week."

Oberlin will host the annual Oberlin Invitational basketball tournament which was scheduled to start Tuesday.

The tournament will continue Thursday, Friday, and Saturday in both gyms. The final games of the first round start at 5:30 p.m. Thursday. Semifinals and consolation bracket games begin at 3:30 p.m. Friday, with games starting at 2:30 p.m. Saturday.
