memorials, food, prayers and visits in memory of our mom.

The family of Doris Miller want to thank you everyone for the cards and flowers that were sent after mom passed away. We want to especially thank the staff of Decatur Good Samaritan Home for the wonderful care and love mom received, she called it home; the memorial service you gave her on Monday morning was wonderful, the birds were singing to her. To the Decatur County Hospital and the nursing staff and Dr. Sliter for her care of mom when she was sick, the hospitality house is a great place. To Pauls Funeral Home for their support, mom had everything already planned, and to Derek, you knew what mom wanted and we kept her wishes, we thank you. Thanks to Pastor Charlotte for her beautiful graveside service and her beautiful voice. The Oberlin Herald for planting a tree this Spring in her honor, it will great in the summer when it's big enough to sit under while enjoying a softball game.

And a special thanks to Betty Salem for being mom's friend and our angel when we couldn't be there. We love you. Mom loved Oberlin.

The Milnes family would like to thank all of Oberlin for their kindness during the loss of John. We would especially like to thank Sharla, Merna, Vicky, Gail, Kurt, Scott and all those at the American Legion for the beautiful celebration of John's life. Thank you to all others who have helped us during this difficult time, and were part of the celebration. Thank you for the flowers, cards, food, contributions and kind words. We are very loved in this community. John would have been very proud. Thank you.
