Lyle News

By Veda Wood

June Jolly was honored with a birthday dinner last Tuesday at the Cardinal Bar and Grill. Others present were Kathy Van Meter, Toots Magers, Joyce Sumner, Eleanor Jensen and Veda Wood. Mrs. Wood's granddaughter, Tracey Pershing and her daughter, Brooke Glosser, and Tielia High and Aubrey, Carol Moye and Kylie Gruwel joined them, then Mrs. Wood visited with her family.

They visited Carol Moye on Friday and A. J. and Tielia High on Saturday. They were joined by Don and Caron High of Indianola, Neb., and Monty and Elizabeth High of Grand Junction, Colo., on Saturday. Tracey visited Mrs. Wood on Wednesday.

The Liberty Star Club met at the Lyle Community Building on Wednesday afternoon. Veda Wood had a short program on space heaters and Deanna Sumner had the activity. The members unscrambled words and made words out of Happy Valentine's Day. Toots Magers was hostess and there was a gift exchange.

Others present were Cathy Anthony and Kathy Van Meter. A plant sale will be held at the April meeting.

Dixie Wood reports that her husband, Elvin, is improved. He had suffered a mild heart attack and pneumonia. Mervin Wood of Newton, Iowa, is also in the hospital.

Mrs. Wood received word that her Aunt Alta, 103, was taken to the hospital in Hastings, Neb., with chest pains, but it turned out that it was nothing serious.

Gary Anthony, who had a bad allergic reaction from medication, is better.

Veda Wood enjoyed a letter from Helen Helm, who sent her the "Legend of the Cherokee Rose," because of her interest in the "Trail of Tears."

June Jolly reported the death of JoAnne Morris, who formerly lived just north of Lyle. Also Jean Spires of Norton died. She was the daughter of Jesse and Euncie Huff, also formerly Lyle area residents.

March 10 to 14 is Severe Weather Awareness week. Sheridan County, Selden and Hoxie will be participating in the state-wide tornado drill.

At 1:30 p.m. Tuesday, March 11, Hoxie and Selden will sound their tornado sirens and at that time everyone should be thinking of and practicing their plan of action in the event of a tornado.

In 2007 there were 14 deaths and 82 injuries due to tornadoes in Kansas. The most severe tornado was in Greensburg on May 4. The first tornado in 2007 came on Feb. 23 and the last on Sept. 28. May 5 had the most tornadoes in one day with 36.

Sheridan County will be holding the annual Weather Spotter Training class at the Bowen Scout House at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, March 11. Everyone is encouraged to attend. The more people we have trained, the safer we'll be.
