Couple plans May wedding

Emily Claire Beck of Manhattan and Michael Dewaine Mangus of Kanorado plan to marry on Saturday, May 31, 2008, at St. Isidore's Catholic Church in Manhattan.

The future bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Terry Beck of Manhattan. She graduated from Manhattan High School in 2004 and is a senior in bio-engineering at Kansas State University. She works as a pianist at the Blue Valley Memorial United Methodist Church and is a math tutor at Kansas State University.

Her fiance is the son of Danny and Charlene Mangus of Kanorado and grandson of Dorothy Man-

E. Beck and M. Mangus

gus of Kanorado and Galen and Meme Carper of Jennings. He is a 2004 graduate of Goodland High School and a senior in mechanical engineering at Kansas State University. He works at the National Gas Machinery Lab at Kansas State

Marketplace 29 A.D. set at Sappa Park June 3-5

A Vacation Bible School experience called "Marketplace 29 A.D." is planned for the evenings of Tues-Sappa Park, for children from kindergarten through sixth grade.

Marketplace 29 A.D. recreates a children will be arranged into tent families, said co-chair Johanna Mason, and will experience dramas, crafts, stories, demonstrations, games, dances and more.

and due to its popularity, has been last time in 2003, she said.

Churches here that have indicated an interest in participating so far are the Assembly of God, Church of day, Wednesday and Thursday, June Christ, Faith Lutheran, Lund Cov-3 to 5, at the shelter house area at enant, Oberlin Covenant, Oberlin United Methodist, and the United Church of Oberlin. Bulletin inserts will be distributed in participating typical scene in a Judean market- churches with information, and place during the life of Jesus. The registration forms will be available in April through the churches, the Decatur County Area Chamber of Commerce and businesses.

Co-chairpersons for the event are Mrs. Mason and Janice Ganje. The The first school with this theme next planning session will be held was held more than 20 years ago at the Church of Christ at 4 p.m. Thursday, March 27. For informarepeated about every five years, the tion call Mrs. Mason at 475-2599 or Mrs. Ganje at 475-3126.

Free Staters to perform American folk songs

Commission will sponsor the Free Staters at 7:30 p.m. on Saturday, March 29, at the Oberlin Gateway Center. This program replaces the KU Dancers, who canceled their

The Free Staters took their name from the tough and determined men and women who settled in the Kansas Territory beginning in 1854. As the territory became a bloody battleground between those for and opposed to slavery, lines were drawn and sides were formed into "Pro-slavery" and "Free-State" or an era when families spent time together gathered around the piano singing popular songs. Neighbors sat on their front porches tapping their feet and clapping their hands to the sounds of a fiddle, banjo and bones. The Free Staters combine fiddle, early fretless banjo, parlor guitar, and buffalo bones to recreate coming from an American front porch in the 1840's.

The Free Staters, who dress in Henzel (785) 470-0218.

Oberlin Arts and Humanities period clothing, include Betsey Goering who plays the fiddle and began playing the instrument at age 3. Her violin was made at the turn of the 20th century. She was classically trained for 14 years and has since learned to fiddle and play minstrel tunes because of her love of 19th century music.

Also playing is Jonathon Goering who plays the guitar and minstrel five-string banjo and sings. He plays the banjo in the "stroke style", a method crucial in recreating the sound of early to mid 19th century music. His banjo was made by James Hartel of New York, com-In every performance, the Free plete with calf-skin head and cat Staters strive to take their audience gut strings. He plays a Ventura back in the nation's history when classical guitar with nylon strings. life was far less complex. It was He and Betsey are married and live in Wichita.

> They play fast-paced, fun, popular music from 1850's America. Popular music by such composers as Stephen Foster came from this time period. Songs like "Old Dan Tucker" and "O Susanna" were also popular during this era.

This is a season ticket event or the music you would have heard $10 for adults or $5 for students grades 1-12. For information, call Ella Betts (785) 475-3557 or Mary

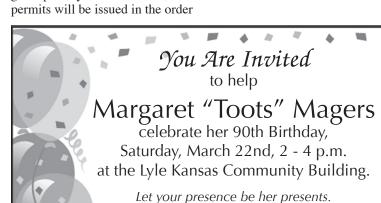

State accepting applications to harvest hay on right of way

The Kansas Department of Trans-received. portation is looking for farmers to Applications, available from department offices, are good for one given priority until March 31, then 296-3576.

Anyone wanting to mow or bale harvest hay on highway rights of hay on state right of way will need to submit an application to the district office in Norton, (785) 877-3315.

For information, call the Norton haying season. Farmers with land office or the Bureau of Construction adjacent to the right of way will be and Maintenance in Topeka at (785)

Card Game Tournaments every Saturday Evening starting at 7 p.m.

TBI Computers 104 S. Penn Ave., Suite 6

Oberlin, KS 67749 Office: 785-475-2539

Club News

Women study Ephesus

about the city of Ephesus given by Joy and Neal Russell.

Members were told that although the ancient Biblical city of Ephesus once had 300,000 residents, today the ruins in Turkey, are not occupied and because the river channel changed over the centuries, it is no longer a seaport. Despite earthquake damage, their photos still showed the architectural splendor that once existed.

President Pat Wright conduct-

United Methodist Women collect men's socks for the youth met at the fellowship hall of the group to take on their mission trip church on March 5 for a program to Denver during spring break. Boxes will be placed at both entries of the church.

The women learned that Camp Lakeside near Scott City has met all requirements to be a nationally approved camp.

The April 2 meeting will be at 2 p.m. in the quiet room of the Good Samaritan Center. A vocal program from the high school music department will follow for residents and guests. Hostesses will be Doris Sloan, Marian Fraker, ed the meeting and it was voted to Pat Wright and Jody Betts.

Sisters entertain group

15 members met for lunch at The Gateway last Wednesday. Roll call was answered with "What are you looking forward to about spring."

Guests were Denise Abbey, Amy Carman and Angie Fortin and seniors Rory Wendelin, Jessica Bremer, Lacy Ream, Lacey Alstrom and Kaitlyn Gillespie.

A card was signed for Tim Davis, husband of Kimberly Davis, who was to undergo eye surgery in Denver. A check for $600 was received from the Seeds

Nora Urban conducted the of Hope Telethon. The club will meeting of the Decatur Business entertain for the birthday party and Professional Women when at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Good Samaritan Center. Walk Kansas was discussed and the DPW team includes: Dori Pauls, Kimberly Davis, Carol Morford, Cynthia Haynes, Pam Wilson and Deanna Castle. Deadline for the club scholarship is April 1. A team for Relay for Life, as well as the parade which is planned for the 50th anniversary of the Last Indian Raid Museum, were discussed.

> The sister duo, Amy Carman and Angie Fortin, as Kindred Flame, presented a musical pro-

Students give program

Monday Evening Club members met March 10 at the home of Shirley Shields with Carol Morford as co-hostess.

The program presented by Decatur Community High School speech students of Leigh Davis included freshman Joe Hirsch, who gave a history lesson full of drama and comedy while perched on a step stool; senior Jessica Bremer entertained with her experiences at a dance, and junior Annamarie Larue gave an informative speech on the art of instant messaging.

The club purchased a new vacuum cleaner from R&M Service Center for Sunflower Cinema with donations from club members and the balance will be used to purchase bags. A slate of officers for the coming club year was presented.

The final meeting of the club year will be a 9:30 a.m. with brunch on Saturday, April 26, at the home of Barbara Dehlinger with Karen Bennett, Judith La-Bash, Judy Shirley and Jody Betts as co-hostesses. New officers will

Group elects new officers

Officers elected at the Feb. ity, Kansas Scholarship Fund, 8 meeting of Royal Neighbors Forget-Me-Nots, Seeds of Hope, of Oberlin include Lois Lamb, Oberlin Swimming Pool fund, president; Phyllis Screen, secretary and Edna Mott, treasurer.

The group decided to give their donations for the year to Royal Neighbors Disaster Fund, Dogs for the Deaf, Habitat for HumanGolden Age Building Fund and the Last Indian Raid Museum. The next meeting will be at 4 p.m. on Friday, April 11.

Members sponsor tea of the Royal Neighbors met at the Golden Age Center on Saturday afternoon for a St. Patrick's Tea Party. Guests were members from the McCook, Wilsonville and Norcatur chapters.

Myrna Jones entertained with piano music, along with some group singing. After refresh-

Nineteen members and guests ments, a drawing was held for door prizes. Winners were Carol Wehrheim, Bertha Schwisow, Marion Thornton, Nadeane Haag, Beth Sebaugh, Dorothy Woods, Wilma May and Myrna Harper.

The guests brought a nice supply for food items for the Decatur Food Pantry.

Widows and Friends meet

The Widows and Friends group enjoyed breakfast at the Frontier Cafe last Wednesday. Coordinator Doris Sloan read "Power of Love" as a greeting.

Attending were Eula Juen-Lippelmann, Bertha Schwisow, Frontier. Delphia Biggs, Donna Frandsen, Martha Fringer, Doris Fringer, Marty Munson, Doris Sloan, Nadean Stoney, Cecil Hess, Willa Urban, Elaine Bryan and Mabel Zimmerman.

The April 9 meeting will be emann, Norma Richards, Millie an 8:30 a.m. breakfast at the

Kaster Lilies are in Spring Bouquets Cash & Carry $4⁹⁹ up Perfect for Easter or to help with Spring Fever Prairie Petals Toll Free Number 1-866-901-3241

GOVERNMENT PROPERTY

Offsite Removal Only

5000 to sq foot corrugated metal bldg. Located at 1706 W. Third Street, McCook, NE

Building to be sold via sealed bid Bid Opening Date April 17, 2008 For more information on this property go to propertydisposal.gsa.gov or call 817-978-4243

Good Friday service at Methodist Church

A community Good Friday ser- munion at 7:30 p.m.; Good Friday vice will begin at 12:10 p.m. Friday at the Oberlin United Methodist Church, sponsored by the Decatur County Ministerial Association. The theme will be, "Were you there: Sensing the Power of the Crucifixion."

Several area churches will observe Holy Week services;

COMMUNITY FELLOWSHIP Easter Sunday services will begin at 10:30 a.m. with Pastor Fred Dycus in charge. A friendship dinner will follow.

OBERLIN, LEOVILLE, SELDEN CATHOLIC

Holy Thursday services will begin at 5:30 p.m. in Selden and at 7:30 p.m. in Oberlin. Good Friday services will be at 1 p.m. in Selden; 3 p.m. in Leoville and 7 p.m. in Oberlin. On Holy Saturday the Easter vigil begins at 8 p.m. at Leoville. Easter Day services will begin at 8 a.m. at Selden and 10:30 a.m. at

JENNINGS-DRESDEN UNITED METHODIST

Maundy Thursday communion and prayer service will begin at 6:30 p.m. at the Dresden United Methodist Church. A Good Friday tenebrae service will begin at 5 p.m. at the Jennings church. Easter morning services will begin at 9:30 a.m. at the Dresden church. An Easter potluck brunch is planned from 9:30 a.m. to morning worship service at 11 a.m. on Sunday at the Jennings church. PRAIRIE CHAPEL

OBERLIN METHODIST

Maundy Thursday services will begin at 7 p.m. at Prairie Chapel. Good Friday services are scheduled at 7 p.m. at the Oberlin church. Easter morning worship services start at 9 a.m. at Prairie Chapel and at 10:45 a.m. at the Oberlin church. HERNDON IMMANUEL

UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST Good Friday services will begin at 7 p.m. and Easter Sunday services start at 9 a.m., with both services at the Don Grafel home.

OBERLIN UNITED CHURCH AMaundy Thursday communion service will begin at 5:30 p.m. Easter morning worship will be at 11 a.m. Sunday. FAITH LUTHERAN service at 7:30 p.m.; and Easter Sunday Holy Communion at 9:30 a.m. with a potluck Easter brunch to follow.

Maundy Thursday Holy Com- Center. The public is invited.

LYLE METHODIST

Jim Plotts will speak 7:30 a.m. at the Easter sunrise services, which will be held on the steps of the church. Breakfast will follow at the community building.

CLAYTON, NORCATUR UNITED METHODIST

Easter Sunday services will begin at 10 a.m. at Norcatur and at 11 a.m. at Clayton. Maundy Thursday joint service will be at 7:30 p.m. at the the United Methodist Church in

OBERLIN COVENANT

A Passover Seder Service will begin at 7 p.m. on Maundy Thursday. An Easter breakfast will be served from 8:30 a.m. to 10 a.m., followed by morning worship services at 10 a.m.

LUND COVENANT

Maundy Thursday services will begin at 6 p.m. An Easter sunrise service is scheduled at 7:30 a.m. at the Cow Palace. Easter morning worship will begin at 10:30 a.m. There will be no Sunday School.

HERNDON COVENANT

Maundy Thursday services will begin at 7 p.m. at the Herndon Covenant Church. Easter sunrise service starts at 7:15 a.m. at the church. A breakfast will follow. The children are to practice their musical numbers at 9:30 a.m., and morning worship will follow at 10 a.m. with Pastor Tom Smith as guest services and Good Friday services will begin at 7 p.m. An Easter morning sunrise service is scheduled at 7:30 a.m., followed by breakfast served by the Lutheran Youth Fellowship. Sunday School will follow at 9:15 a.m. and morning worship at 10:30 a.m.

ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN Maundy Thursday communion

ST. MARY'S CATHOLIC HERNDON

Holy Thursday service will begin at 8 p.m. Easter Sunday Mass is scheduled at 8:30 a.m.

GOOD SAMARITAN CENTER

AGood Friday service will begin Holy Week services include at 7 p.m. at the Good Samaritan

Speech class gives program

Leigh Davis, speech teacher at Rotarians present included Rebecca Decatur Community High School, Helm and Melissa Hasty. 4 meeting of the Oberlin Rotary Club at The Gateway. She was introduced by Buzz Matson.

Ms. Davis said they represent three categories of public speaking competition. She introduced Makenzie Nelson in informal speaking. Makenzie explained the myths and obstacles that face left-handed people, along with some of the positives and negatives for them.

Jacob Larue gave "Eight Simple Rules for Dating My Daughter" for the interpretive speaking category. Cindy Carter, in the acting category, spoke and acted the parts of "A Trip to Camp Sunshine," which featured many characteristics of summer camp.

Janice Shobe was a guest from the Atwood Rotary Club and junior brought three members her class Several Rotary Club members who gave the program at the March gave updates for the program at the March 11 meeting. Jim Hollowell reported on Rotary Radio Day, which raised $3,925 for scholarship programs and other local and national projects; Oberlin Rotary Appreciation Night will be held next Tuesday; Colleen Rittmann is in charge of the post-prom activities; exchange student Patricia Gomez will graduate from college in Panama with a degree in business and a money gift will be sent. Lynn Doeden reported on progress of the > doctor procurement committee. Junior Rotarians present were Heather Glodt and Cody Haas. Miss Glodt gave a report on her brother, Kyle, who continues to recover from skiing injuries and is attending college.

