

Progress Index

- Addleman Drug caps 100 years of family ownership downtown. Page 4S.
- Best Kept Secret Beauty Salon moving to 106 S. Beaver. Page 4S.
- Churches have new pastors, others move on or retire. Page 4S.
- D & M Service Center opens at 203 W. Parkway. Page 5S.
- Decatur County Feed Yard a pioneer for 35 years in cattle business. Page 9S.
- Decatur County Hospital opens $800,000 specialty clinic addition for visiting doctors. Page 6S.
- Barber from Denver reopens Hiway Barbershop on Frontier Parkway. Page 4S.
- Nurse Kelly Moore opens medical supply store downtown. Page 4S.
- Kurt Anderson hired as new Decatur Co-op manager; Co-op has record year. Page 11S.
- Decatur County Good Samaritan Center marks 50 years of service. Page 4S.
- Plans to build a 5,500 foot runway are underway in Oberlin with the state promising $1 million for the project. Page 10S.
- School district hires Nebraska man as new superintendent. Page 4S.
- The ReLoad moves across the street to new, larger restaurant. Page 5S.
- Busy R&M Service Center adds staff, new lines to match demand for appliances. Page 5S.
- Couple buys Times Past building, moves in; sister opens coffee shop. Page 5S.

- City-owned Sappa Park becomes area's top recreation spot, with trails, camping and soon, a wetland and pond. Page 3S.
- Tiffany Robinson opens new day care, Small Steps, at 202 S. Wolf. Page 5S.
- Teresa Shaughnessy replaces Marcia Lohofener after her retirement as manager at Wheat Ridge Terrace apartments. Page 5S.
- Chuck Harms opens ASC Towing and Repair out of his Oberlin home. Page 5S.
- Barb Whitney starts as the administrator for the medical clinic. Page 11S.
- City hires new patrolman to fill the last open position on the force. Page 11S.
- Jo Henderson starts as the manager of the Decatur County Area Chamber of Commerce. Page 11S.
- Farm Bureau has a new sales associate who is manning the office. Page 11S.
- Great Northwest Insurance opened in offices downtown. Page 11S.
- Couple starts Home Range Realty, Inc. Page 11S.
- City builds new waste water treatment plant. Page 8S.
- Stellar Sales opens at intersection of U.S. 36 and U.S. 83. Page 12S.
- Bird City man named Oberlin postmaster. Page 11S.
- City builds new waste water treatment plant. Page 8S.

Community

AT THE END of the school year the Class of 2008 including Jared Marcuson, Chenaniah Langness, Colt Diederich and Sean Ybarra, spent a day working at Sappa Park.

—Herald file photo

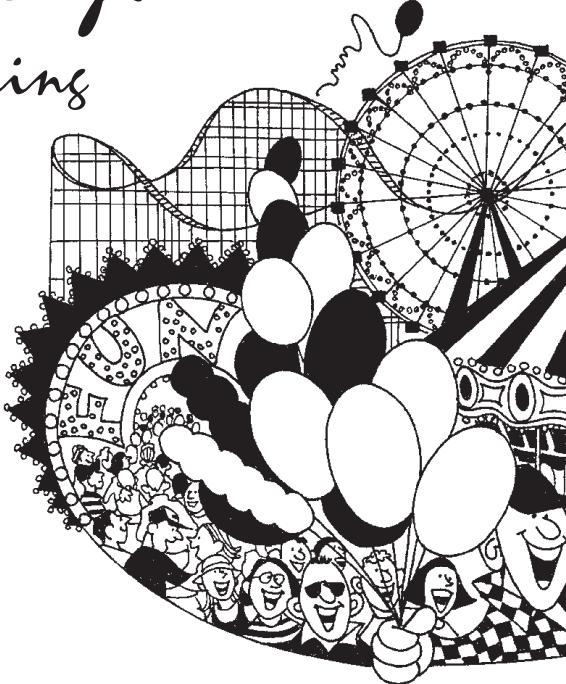

Our next special Edition is

Fair Days 2008

Call Dave Bergling

today at 785-475-2206

to place your ad!

THE OBERLIN HERALD

170 S. Penn — Oberlin — 785-475-2206

Welcome

Welcome to The Oberlin Herald's Progress edition, a roundup of changes, improvements and betterments over the last few years in Decatur County.

While it sometimes seems “nothing happens” in a town this size, we’ve found that if you take stock, you find a lot that’s new, growing and vital.

We’ve asked for suggestions and tried to list as many businesses as we could get information on, but we’re sure there is more. If we missed you, please call. We’ll get something in the paper.

The photo on the cover shows Mick Glaze using his team of horses to plant corn on the lake bottom, part of a community garden in the revitalized Sappa Park.

Mary Lou Olson and Kimberly Davis wrote the stories while Mrs. Olson and Leslie Nolette helped proof the edition, Karla Jones made up the section and Dave Bergling sold the ads.

