Parents can't beat Bantams

The players beat their parents last Tuesday night in the Bantam League.

Several players from both Fredrickson Insurance and Countryside Vet were gone, so the teams combined and played their parents, with the girls winning 11-8.

They are the only two teams in the league and will play double headers every Tuesday night through the end of the season.

In the boys Pony League, the Black Gold team triumphed over First National Bank 8-3 and 8-4. They are also the only two teams in their league and will play double headers every Wednesday night through the end of the season.

In Little League action last Monday, Crossroads Express knocked off Decatur County Feed Yard 16-4 while Raye's overcame R & M Service 21-16.

In T-Ball action Stanley Hardware played Paul's and Custom Trophy played The Bank. No scores are kept for T-Ball.

Little League was to continue on Monday with Decatur County Feed Yard playing Raye's and R & M Service playing Crossroads.

On Monday, R & M Service will play Decatur County Feed Yard at 6:30 p.m. and Raye's will play Crossroads at 7:30 p.m.

T-Ball was to resume on Tuesday with Pauls playing Addleman's and Stanley Hardware playing The Bank.

Next week on Tuesday, The Bank will play Addleman's at 6:30 p.m. and Stanley Hardware will play Custom Trophy at 7:30 p.m.
