Cards of Thanks

Our heartfelt thanks, to the Oberlin rural and Selden fire departments and the fire chiefs. The house could not be saved, but you saved so much, other buildings and the wind break. These are very professional people. God bless each and everyone of you, also for the many calls of concern. Thank you again.
Dean and Peggy Groneweg

Our sincere thanks to all our families and friends for all the food, flowers, visits, calls and cards. Your words of sympathy and prayers meant and still mean so much to us. We thank all for the monetary gifts to Joe's memorial fund and for masses. We also thank the families who donated money to us to help pay our expenses while in Wichita, and to the anonymous family for the very special gift. To Fr. Henry - our thanks for coming to our home on 1st Fridays and bringing communion to us and staying and visiting and also for saying Joe's funeral mass. Thanks to the Altar Society for preparing and serving the delicious meal. We've been blessed by so many over the past few years while Joe underwent so many surgeries and illnesses. We'll never forget all the kindnesses offered. We thank our neighbors for doing chores for us while Joe was hospitalized this past illness for two months. To the doctors, nurses and staff at the Oberlin Clinic and hospital, our heartfelt thanks for the love and care given to us over the years. You truly are our extended family.

Joe Kruse family
