Oberlin takes third in Oakley

Two swimmers set pool records at meet

The Oberlin Swimming Club placed third in Oakley during the last regular meet of the season on June 28.

Goodland took first and Colby second.

Nicky McDonald and Darbi Rouse set new pool records during the meet. McDonald in the 25-yard butterfly stroke, 25-yard breaststroke and 100-yard individual medley and Rouse in the 400-yard freestyle.

"The swimmers are improving as the season progresses," said Coach Stephanie Blau, "I'm excited to see how the swimmers do at the league swim meet. We have 13 swimmers qualifying for the year-end high point awards. These swimmers have placed in the top six in each of their events at each meet. They work very hard to qualify for this."
