POLICE BLOTTER

The Oberlin Police Department worked these calls last week:

• Arrested David Allen Carrier, 29, Oberlin, Tuesday on a warrant of Arizona for probation violation. He was also charged in a recent case of sexual battery involving three Oberlin women.

• Received a report on Friday of damage to the windshield on a 2007 Ford belonging to Jordan Macfee. Police Chief Wade Lockhart said the car was parked at Crossroads Express and someone apparently hit the glass or shot it. He said it looks like there are a couple of pits in the windshield from a BB gun sometime between 8 and 10 p.m. Monday, July 14.

• Received a report of damage to a window Saturday at the home of Miriah Bordoni in the 600 block of East Oak. It looked like someone shot the storm window with a BB gun, the chief said.

• Worked an accident around 12:29 p.m. last Monday in front of Raye's Grocery. Sherry Quakenbush, 51, was driving a 1999 Plymouth van east on Commercial when she hit a parked 2000 Chevy pickup belonging to Paula Corcoran.

Ms. Quakenbush got a ticket for inattentive driving, no seatbelts and no proof of insurance. She took herself to the doctor, the chief said.

WEATHER

Decatur County Weather ----- July 22nd - 26th

Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
99/66	97/65	95/65	97/66	99/66

Normal High: 91
Normal Low: 62

Hot and dry weather will continue through the third week of July with any storms remaining to the west in Eastern Co or on the KS/CO border. Highs won't reach 100, but will be darn close. This time of the year hot weather is not unusual. Long range forecasts are hinting for cooler temperatures and precipitation chances starting Sunday and continuing through the first half of next week.
