Win basket of goodies

The Decatur Professional Women are selling tickets for a chance to win a basket full of goodies just in time for Christmas.

Tickets — one for $1 or six for $5 — can be purchased from any club member or at The Oberlin Herald.

The basket includes Christmas ornaments, wrapped surprises and jewelry, said Kimberly Davis, a club member.

"The basket would make a great gift for any woman or young lady in your life," she said, "or it would just be fun to win it for yourself."

The winner will be drawn on Friday, Nov. 28, and doesn't have to be present to win.

Correction

The Tripple Creek Riders club was omitted from a list of winners for the museum 50th anniversary parade in the Oct. 8 edition of The Oberlin Herald. This information was not given to the newspaper.

Obituaries

Mildred Emily Auker

Mildred Emily Auker, 98, widow of Norcatour native and former Detroit Tiger pitcher Elden Auker, died in July 2008, in Michigan.

She was born in Chase and graduated from Kansas State University. She married Elden Auker in 1932 and moved to Michigan when he was signed by the Detroit Tigers. They moved to Boston when her husband was traded to the Red Sox, then to St. Louis when he played with the Browns. Her husband was president of Bay State Abrasives Corp. before his retirement. After his death in 2006, she moved to Michigan to live with her son and his wife.

Survivors include her son, Jim and Candice; two grandsons; a granddaughter-in-law, Melissa; a great-granddaughter, and a nephew, George and JoAnn Purcell.

A memorial service was held Sept. 21, 2008, at the Elden Auker Park in Norcatour. Pastor Terry Worthington officiated and inurnment was at the Norcatour Cemetery.

six grandchildren; and one great-granddaughter.

He was preceded in death by his son, James Harvey, on July 6, 1956; his wife, Grace, on May 9, 1997; three brothers, Marion, Dean, and Alvin Bastin and a sister, Erma Jean Hill.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the Rexford Community Church. The Rev. Lane Purcell officiated and burial was at the Rexford Cemetery with committal rites by the Fort Riley Military Honor Guard.

Memorials were established to the Gideons, the church or donor's choice. Contributions may be sent to Pauls Funeral Home, 121 N. Penn, Oberlin, Kan., 67749.

Mary W. Bennett

Mary Winifred Bennett, 92, a former resident of Jennings, died Wednesday, Oct. 8, 2008, at the Good Samaritan Center in Hays.

She was born April 16, 1916, at Arma, the daughter of Frank C. and Florence (Wright) Hill. She married Galen E. Bennett on May 5, 1940 at Phillipsburg. He died in 1997. She was a teacher and attended North Oak Community Church in Hays.

Survivors include her sons, Jim and Merilee Bennett, Lakewood, Colo., and Mike and Dorothy Bennett, Overland Park; a daughter, Susan George, Hays; seven grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

She was also preceded in death by a son-in-law, Kermit George; a brother, Albert Hill; and a sister, Bess Windes.

Memorial services were held Friday at the North Oak Community Church in Hays.

Memorials have been established to the church or the American Heart Association, in care of Hays Memorial Chapel Funeral Home, 20th and Pine, Hays, Kan., 67601, which handled the arrangements.

Hallie M. Case

Hallie Marguerite Case, 89, a native of Norcatour, died Aug. 25, 2008, in Hot Springs Village, Ark.

She was born Feb. 4, 1919, near Norcatour, the only child of Clark and Winnifred (Olmstead) Bell. She attended a one-room country school, Prairie View, and graduated from Norcatour Rural High School.

She received a Bachelor of Science in Home Economics and Nursing from Kansas State University; a Diploma in Nursing from the University of Kansas; a Masters Degree from Bradley University in Guidance and Counseling, and a Master Certificate in Nursing from the University of Illinois.

She married Dr. Glenn Case, a veterinarian, on May 31, 1940. They fostered three international students, one from Brazil and two from Ethiopia. She was director of nursing at Kewanee Public Hospital in Kewanee, Ill., for more than 25 years. She was a member of the Arkansas Chapter of the American Revolution and was named a Paul Harris Fellow by the Hot Springs Village Rotary Club.

Survivors include two daughters, Lesley Case, Hot Springs Village, Ark.; and Glenna and Harlan Garbell, Minneapolis, Minn.; a son, Clark and Diane Case; five grandchildren and a great-grandson; and their foster children, Mengiste and Ayele Dobrinich, Bloomington, Ill., and Abraham and Sadie Ayele, Olathe; and Dr. Osmario Veira, Brazil.

She was preceded in death by her husband; her parents; two daughters, Maritta and Krisann; four half-brothers; and a half-sister.

Memorial services were held Aug. 30, 2008, at Village United Methodist Church in Hot Springs Village. Arrangements were by Cedar Vale Funeral Home of Hot Springs.

Harold Cook

Funeral services are pending for Harold Cook, a brother of Jeanette Miller of Oberlin, who died Monday, Oct. 13, 2008, at his home in Norton.

He was born in Scott County, the third of four children of Wade and Grace (Wilken) Cook. His family moved to Decatur County on Nov. 4, 1953, making their home on a farm northeast of Oberlin. He graduated from Decatur Community High School in 1967. He served in the U.S. Army for four years and did a tour of duty in Vietnam.

Pauls Funeral Home of Oberlin is in charge of arrangements.

A complete obituary will be carried next week.
