Lions district governor to visit club

Lions District Gov. John Lee of Kismet will make his official visit to the Jennings Lions Club at 6:30 p.m. Monday, Oct. 27, at the Broken Wheel.

He and his wife attend the First Baptist Church of Plains. They have three grown children and one grandchild. He serves as a member of the Kismet City Council and as a member of the Seward County Fire Board.

Gov. John Lee

Mr. Lee was elected district governor for the 2008-09 club year, which began July 1. He and his wife Stephanie attended the Lions International Convention in Bangkok, Thailand, in late June, where he was sworn in as the first district governor for new Lions District 17-L, which covers the entire western half of Kansas.

Gov. Lee is a native of eastern New Mexico and a graduate of New Mexico State University with a degree in agriculture education. He was employed by DeKalb Corp. before starting a 6,000-head contract swine finishing unit near Kismet.

Don Bolt is president of the Jennings Lions Club, David Carter is secretary and Jeff Wahlmeier is treasurer. Other members include: William Carter, Harold "Bob" Tacha, Lawrence Jennings, Kenneth Carter, Doyle Brown, Mike McKenna, Mike Bailey, Jerry Schuetz and Joe Carter.

Lions International says it is the largest community service organization in the world, with 1.4 million members in over 45,000 clubs in 202 countries. District 17-L has 1,750 Lions in 73 clubs.

County office sending staff to meetings

Farm Service Agency employees who deal with farm programs from around Kansas will attend a Farm Bill training session next Tuesday to Friday.

All permanent farm program staff will attend this session. County offices will remain open, but will be staffed by temporary employees, said Bill R. Fuller, state executive director of the federal agency.

Those employees won't know much about the farm programs. Computers will remain off and payments will not be issued, Mr. Fuller said. Questions will be addressed by regular staff when they return to the office on Monday, Oct. 27.

For information or questions, call Diane Barrett, Decatur County executive director, at the Oberlin service center, 475-3131.

Club enjoys boys quartet

The boys quartet from Decatur Community High School sang barbershop music when members of the Oberlin Rotary Club met on Oct. 7 at The Gateway.

Program chairman Bob Gaskill introduced Susan Nelson, vocal director, and members of the quartet, Jordan Tally, tenor; Joseph Hirsch, lead; Jacob Larue, bass; and Ethan Merrill, baritone. They sang several selections, including "Goodnight Sweetheart" to Vice President Rhonda May.

Guests were Tamara Ketterl and Elisha Jones, junior Rotarians from the high school, and Kay Brown.

Ballet coming to arts center

The New York Theater Ballet will perform at 7:30 p.m. Sunday at the Cultural Arts Center in Colby, sponsored by Western Plains Arts Association.

The dance numbers include cheerleading fun, a pom-pom girl pursued by a body builder; two ship librarians in love, a ballroom romance, a beach babe and a sextet of distraught lovers, along with sounds of the 1950s score by Gershwins.

Act II combines Agnes DeMille's choreography of portions of the musicals, "Paint Your Wagon" and "Carousel."

Admission is by season ticket or $15 for adults and $8 for students at the door.
