They enjoyed the annual family tradition of Pond Butter Pudding, snacks, and coffee.

Fern Jording and Marjorie Law were Sunday afternoon visitors of John and Dianne Bremer and Jessica.

Hello from the Chamber! Hope everyone had a nice Christmas.

The Oberlin Business Alliance soup lunch and drawing was on Saturday, Dec. 20. The soup was delicious! Thank you to all of those who made soup and brought in pies and cakes. I absolutely loved the chili Sharleen Wurm brought in from the museum. If you missed this event, you missed out on some great food. All proceeds will be donated to the Golden Age Center.

Derek Chambers won the big prize at the Oberlin Business Alliance drawing. Other winners were Mike Helm, Linda Weber, Kristin McHugh, Sarah Murray, Bob Berkheimer, Sharon Black, Nancy Lockhart, Anita Montgomery and Dan Lippelmann. Aspen Gallentine won the children's drawing. Congrats to all the winners! Also, a big thank you to Brittani Farr for drawing the tickets.

The Christmas Cookie Party went well. All the cookies were gone before 2 p.m., which was unexpected. I bought some and they were good. I tried a couple of every cookie, and those Russian tea balls - yum! They were my favorite. I was glad that I grabbed up three of those. Thank you to all of you who made and purchased cookies.

The Chamber will be working on table tents soon, so if there is an event that can be put on them for the next three months, please contact the Chamber office.

It isn't too late to get your membership dues in. Just drop by the Chamber office.

Have a Happy New Year!
