Cards of Thanks

Dear Secret Santa: Thank you for the gifts and making Christmas so special. Shields and Anderson families

Thank you to our friends and neighbors for the loving acts of kindness following the death of our mother and grandmother: the calls, visits, food brought into our homes, prayers, flowers, and donations to the Memorial Fund. A special thanks also goes to those who brought food to the Selden Community Center and to those who served the meal after the funeral. Our thanks to those who showed Mom love and caring at PSLC and the Colby Hospital. Your actions will not be forgotten. Sincere thanks to Rev. Barbara Patterson and Shirley Emigh for the comforting words given at the funeral. Thanks to all at Pauls Funeral Home of Selden for their loving care and guidance at this time.

The family of Elda Campbell Deanna and Jerry Heffington and family
Janice Kruse and family

Kathy Rains and family
Shirley and Omar Weber and family
Charlene Werth and family

The family of Velda Ward wishes to thank everyone for the cards, calls, food and all the help at the luncheon at the Educational Building. We thank everyone who ate and visited with us. We especially wish to thank Dr. Stelian Andrecu, all the staff at the clinic, hospital and all the personnel at Cedar Living Center.

With Love,
Frank Ward,
Wava Reames and family
Leslie Ward and family

I would like to thank the doctors, nurses and hospital staff for the fine care I received. Also for the calls, flowers and gifts from family.
Joan Grafel*

Thank you for allowing me to serve as your Commissioner from the 3rd District of Decatur County. Thank you to the best group of County Employees in the state; it has been an honor to serve you and work with you for the past sixteen years.

I would like to thank the Oberlin EMT's, Jonna Inman and Dr. Andrecu for the latest care I got at the Oberlin hospital, nurses and everyone else and people who went the extra mile. I think we should all be grateful for such an excellent facility. Thank you.
