

Lyle News

By Veda Wood

Veda Wood accompanied Alta May Van Gundy to the Eagles-sponsored potluck and Bingo party on March 16. Surprisingly, Alta could hear the caller well enough to play and she won the very first game, a blackout. She won a waterproof lantern, and was told that, now, she could go fishing. She politely declined a fishing trip.

Margaret "Toots" Magers sewed with the Lyle quilters on Tuesday. On Wednesday she went to Kenneth Price's funeral. On Thursday Ruth Vise and Karla Clason of Beaver City, Neb., stopped by after being at the cemetery.

On Friday, June Jolly took Toots Magers and Kathy Van Meter to Norcat where they enjoyed the Soup and Pie lunch served by the Royal Neighbors, and the card games. Earnest and Donna Huff came to Toot's home in the evening, brought her some eggs and visited. Shanna Nitzel of Oxford, Neb., visited her on Sunday evening.

Rea and Dee Magers took Toots Magers and Veda Wood to the Lebanon, Neb., American Legion supper and Bingo on Sunday evening. They gave awards to the long time members. The top honorees were Robert Daffer and Neal Warner, 50 years, and Helen Helm, 35 years, for the longest auxiliary membership. We had a delicious meal and played Bingo. That lucky June Jolly won the first three games, and Helen Helm won the super prize.

I missed a few things last week; a funeral, the soup and pie lunch and senior citizens because of being a little dizzy in the head.

We were very happy to hear that Bob Kelley's surgery was successful and he didn't lose his leg, which they had thought was a possibility. Nearly everyone on our prayer list is showing improvement. Of course, what did we expect?
