

Rexford News

By Vicki Allison

The theme, Amazon Expedition, exploring the Seven C's of History, became an adventure during Vacation Bible School held at the Rexford Community Church from June 1 to 5. Amazing facts about creatures of the Rain Forest were taught along with the Seven C's of History: creation, corruption, catastrophe, confusion, and Christ, Cross, and Consummation.

The children, ages K-6th grade, created some great craft items, learned new games and fantastic songs. A program was held for parents and the community Friday evening. Mission emphasis and donations went towards Romanian Missions out of Quinter. Thanks to all for the great help make memories for our youth and teaching the biblical view of our creation.

The Shepherd's Staff Conference and Retreat Center presents Creative Arts Camp, for ages 8-14, June 14-19. The theme this year will be "Under God's Big Top," Exciting Skills that Honor Him. For registration information, call (888) 687-2565 or (817) 467-2133.

to a new graduate.

"How many times have I told you - skateboards and stairs don't mix!"

We've been part of family conversations for 35 years.

At Community Hospital, we treat patients like our family, because that's how we think of the people of southwest Nebraska and northwest Kansas. We're honored to play such an important role in the region where we live, work, and raise our families. And we'll continue to expand our mission of service excellence, for decades to come.
