Baseball season starts up

The summer baseball season got started last Monday, June 1, as the Oberlin Little Leaguers hit the field.

Custom Trophy overcame Stanley Hardware, 19-6, in the opening round. The Bank downed Farmers Bank and Trust, 18-8, in the second game of the evening and Stanley Hardware, 11-4, in the closer.

Last Wednesday in the Pony League, Black Gold downed Fredrickson Dental, 8-1 and 10-6.

On Thursday, in the Bantam League, Countryside Vet overcame Ward Drug, 10-5 and 17-10.

The T-Ballers, who were supposed to play on Tuesday, got shifted to Thursday due to rain and storm warnings. On Thursday, Raye's Grocery played Fredrickson Insurance and Ron's Applying went up against R&M Service Center. No scores are kept for T-Ball.

This week, Black and Gold and Fredrickson's will go against each other at 6:30 p.m. and 8 p.m. tonight and next Wednesday.

The Bantam teams, Countryside Vet and Ward Drug, were to get together to play Atwood in Oberlin on Tuesday and will go to Atwood to play them at 6:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. next Tuesday.

On Monday in Little League play, it was to be Farmers Bank and Trust against Custom Trophy and Stanley's Hardware in the first and third games, and The Bank versus Custom Trophy in the middle game.

This coming Monday it will be Custom Trophy against Stanley at 6:30 p.m., The Bank versus Farmers at 7:30 p.m. and The Bank versus Stanley at 8:30 p.m.

The T-Ballers were to play on Tuesday, with Raye's going against Ron's and The Reload facing Fredrickson Insurance. Next Tuesday, it will be Ron's against Fredrickson at 6:30 p.m. and R&M versus The Reload at 7:30 p.m.

Softball starts

The Fortins and the Little Lebuski Urban Achievers were the winners in the co-ed softball league on Sunday.

The Fortins downed Creative Dimensions 25-8 in the opener and 18-14 in their second game.

The Achievers came back for the third and fourth games of the evening and downed Good Sam 21-5 and 26-10.

On Sunday, Good Sam and Creative Dimensions will play at 6:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. and Fortins and Countryside Vet will meet at 8:30 p.m. and 9:30 p.m.
