

Baseball teams play second week

K-18

The Oberlin K-18 team fell 10-4 and 23-8 to Oakley on the road last Monday.

The game scheduled for Wa-Keeney on Thursday was postponed but the boys were to play in Goodland on Monday and will go up against Colby again at 6:30 p.m. Thursday.

The Colby team played in Oberlin the first week of the month and took both games from the Oberlin boys.

LITTLE LEAGUE

In Little League played the same night, it was Custom Trophy over Farmers Bank and Trust 23-18, Stanley Hardware edged Farmers 20-18 and Custom and The Bank tied 9-9.

On Monday, Stanley was scheduled to meet Custom and The Bank and The Bank to play Farmers Bank.

Next Monday, Custom will take on Farmers at 6:30 p.m. The Bank will meet Custom at 7:30 p.m. and Farmers will play Stanley's at 8:30 p.m.

BANTAM LEAGUE

Last Tuesday in the Bantam League, Atwood downed Ward

Drug 3-0 and Countryside Vet beat Atwood 9-1 in Oberlin. The Oberlin teams were to play Atwood in Atwood this week and will be home playing each other again next Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.

PONY LEAGUE

Wednesday night's Pony League games were rained out, so the teams played on Thursday. Fredrickson Dental beat Black Gold 8-4 and Black Gold returned the favor, downing Fredrickson 23-12 in the nightcap.

The teams are to meet tonight at 6:30 p.m. and 8 p.m. and Friday at the same times.

T-BALL

The T-batters don't keep score, but it was Raye's Grocery versus Ron's Applying and Reload against Fredrickson Insurance last Tuesday. This week, Ron's was to play Fredrickson and R&M Service Center was going up against The Reload on Tuesday. Next Tuesday it will be Raye's versus R&M at 6:30 p.m. and Ron's Applying against Reload at 7:30 p.m.

The T-batters are featured on The Oberlin Herald's OH! Page 1B this week.

Junior golfers attend tourneys

Oberlin's junior golfers have been busy over the last couple of months.

Kade and Kelly Brown played in the first of four qualifying tournaments for the Kansas Junior Golf Association West Section on May 29 at Mariah Hills in Dodge City.

Kelly shot a 40, taking first place in the 10-and-11-year-old category.

Kade placed fourth in the 14-and-15-year-old group with an 81. The younger golfers shot from red tees and the old ones from blue tees farther back.

The boys are earning points to participate in the association's sectional championship Monday and Tuesday, July 20 and 21, in Hutchinson.

Adult golfers hit the links

After rain and bad weather washed out the weekly men's night for two weeks, 26 golfers were able to hit the links last Tuesday at the Oberlin Country Club.

The team of Rick Doeden, Scott Carlton and Dick Ahlberg took first, shooting a 30.

There was a tie for second with the team of Bill Gosha, Monte Hunt and Joe Stanley and the team of Preston Pratt and Brian and Nathan Simons-son both recording a 31.

There will be a three-person scramble at 9 a.m. Sunday.

Riders plan barrel race

The Tripple Creek Riders and Saddle Club, along with the Mid-America Rodeo Co. of Hays, plan to hold the Northwestern Kansas Open Women's Barrel Race at 10 a.m. Saturday just south of the Decatur County Fairground at the group's arena.

The Open Division will cost $25 to enter and the Youth Division $15. There will be no charge to come and watch.

A lunch will be provided during the show for a donation. The money will go towards new lighting for the arena. A jackpot and trophies will be given at the end of the race.

For information, call (785) 628-6272.

Competition in the Northwest Junior Golf League started June 1 in Colby with Chance and Callie Uehlin and Mason Ahlberg playing for Oberlin.

Ahlberg placed second in the 10-to-11-year-old division, shooting a 54. Chance placed fourth in the same group, shooting a 70. Callie placed second in the 8-to-9-year-old group with a 78.

Kade Brown competed at the Second Annual Woody Austin Jr. Golf Tournament on June 2 to 4 at the Auburn Hills Golf Course in Wichita.

He tied for 18th, shooting 87-79-84 for 250. The tournament attracted 66 golfers age 14 and 15.

Kelly Brown played in the U.S. Kids Wolf Golf qualifier June 3 at the Lake Hefner Golf Course in Oklahoma City.

He placed fourth, shooting a 39-48 for 87 from tees that were 5,000 yards from the target.

The Brown brothers played in a junior golf association outing on June 8 in Dodge City with Kelly coming in first in the 11-and-under category with a 44 and Kade fourth in the 14-to-15-year-old group with an 82.

The same day, the Oberlin junior golfers were in Atwood for a Northwest Junior Golf tournament.

Callie Uehlin took second with an 84 in the 8-to-9-year-old group; Ahlberg, second with a 56 in the 10-11 group; Chance Uehlin, 58, fourth among 10 to 11 year olds; and Logan Beery, 74, third, 12-to-13-year olds.

Mason Berry, Hannah May and Tyler Bruggeman also played for Oberlin but did not place. Berry shot a 74 in the 8-9-year-old group; May an unknown number of strokes in the 12-13 year olds; and Bruggeman, 122 for the 14-15 year olds.

Last Tuesday, the Browns were at the Salina Optimist International Junior Golf Qualifying Tournament at the Salina Municipal Golf Course. Kelly took second in the 10-11-year-old group with an 87 and Kade, seventh in the 14-15-year-old category.
