MUNICIPAL COURT

Thursday, March 11: Christopher Kelley, Oberlin, failure to yield right of way, $125; Zenon Krupa, Oak Lawn, Ill., speeding 53 in a 30 mph zone, $182, court costs, $65; Barbara Beisner, Oberlin, improper backing, $125.

POLICE BLOTTER

The Oberlin Police Department worked these calls:

• At 6:30 p.m. last Tuesday, police officers and an ambulance were called to a wreck on the Sappa Park Road, east of Oberlin.

Joseph Quick, 16, Oberlin, who police said was driving 70 to 75 mph in a 25 mph zone on the road just east of the Herb Shirley home, ran off the road into the right-hand ditch as he turned the corner to go up the hill towards U.S. 36. He continued in the ditch until the vehicle hit a large stump.

Along with Quick were four juvenile passengers — two girls 13 and 16, a boy 17 and a 1-year-old baby. All but the infant were taken by ambulance to the Decatur Community Hospital, where they were treated and released.

Quick was cited for reckless driving, no insurance, obstruction of justice (for allegedly lying to an officer) and aggravated child endangerment for endangering the life of someone under 18.

• Christopher Kelley, 34, Oberlin, was southbound on Griffith Avenue at Commercial Street at 7:05 a.m. Feb. 22. At the stop sign, he failed to yield to Helen Gee, 60, Oberlin, who was driving east on Commercial. Mrs. Gee tried to avoid the accident but could not because the street was snow packed and icy, Police Chief Wade Lockhart said.

Mr. Kelley was cited for failure to yield.

• At 5:15 p.m. Feb. 24, a 2004 Chevy Trailblazer driven by Ed Brittain, 51, Oberlin, struck the bumper of a parked 2004 Ford F15 pickup owned by Vince Carswell as Mr. Brittain pulled out of a parking space in front of Rayes Grocery. There was minor damage.

• At 3:52 on March 2, Garrett Berry, 15, driving a 1988 Toyota pickup, collided with Serena Stacy, 16, driving a 1999 Dodge, at the corner of South Marks Avenue and Hall Street.

Mr. Berry had stopped at the stop sign as he exited the Decatur Community High School parking lot and then turned left onto Marks, going south. Miss Stacy, who was driving east on Hall, had also stopped her vehicle. She then turned to go south also and the two collided in the intersection.

The chief said that both drivers were at fault, so no citations were issued.

• At 12:10 p.m. March 4, Barbara Beisner, 76, Oberlin, was backing her 1999 Ford Windstar out of a parking place in front of Ward Drug and turned too quickly, hitting the right front quarter panel of a parked 1989 Chevy Caprice belonging to Barbara Castor, Oberlin.

Ms. Beisner received a ticket for improper backing.

• At noon last Tuesday, Daniel Dempewolf, 25, Oberlin, was backing out of a parking place in the city shop parking lot when his 2000 Dodge R15 pickup struck a 1973 Chevy truck belonging to the city. The city truck was apparently undamaged, Chief Lockhart said, but the Dempewolf vehicle had damage to the bed.

Since the accident occurred on private property, no citation was issued.

• On Feb. 17, Brandi Ramsey, 32, Oberlin was arrested on a failure to appear warrant from Indiana. She waived extradition and returned to Indiana.

• On Feb. 18, officials at the Oberlin Elementary School reported that the rock sign in front of the school had been destroyed by vandals sometime during the early morning. The loss is estimated at $450 and the vandalism is still under investigation, said Chief Lockhart.

• On Feb. 21, Corrine Walker reported criminal damage to property. Sometime between Feb. 19 and 20, someone had tried to kick in her front door in the 100 block of South Beaver. The inside door jam was broken but nothing was missing from the house. The damage was estimated at $50.

• On Feb. 21, Wayne Rutkowski, 22, Oberlin was arrested for harboring a runaway juvenile. He was later turned over to authorities from Arapahoe County, Colorado, where there was an outstanding warrant on him for burglary.

• On March 8, Dallas Johnson reported criminal damage to his pickup. The vehicle, which was parked on the street in the 200 block of North Marks, suffered a dent in the hood sometime between 6 p.m. March 5 and noon on March 8.

Correction

An obituary in the Wednesday, March 10, issue of The Oberlin Herald for Joyce Pavlicek listed an uncle and aunt as Lyle and Arlene Kiger. It should have been Lyle and Arlene Pummer. This was a reporter's error.
