Decatur Community High senior Wiley Farr has signed a letter of intent to play football for Garden City Community College next year. Farr, who played quarterback and defensive back for the Red Devils last year, says he hopes to study ranching and farm management or athletic training and go on to a four-year college or university to play more football. As a senior, Farr had 599 yard rushing on 151 carries for 10 touchdowns. He had 71 pass completions out of 142 attempts for 1,031 yards, nine touchdowns and seven interceptions. His longest pass of the year was 79 yards. He also caught the ball seven times for 11 yards. His longest catch was 23 yards. On the defensive end, Farr, had 21 tackles, 74 assists, two interceptions and three blocked passes. He is the son of Jerry Farr and Wanda Farr.

Besides football, Farr played basketball and wrestled while in high school and rode in the rodeo. He has been a member of D Club, Student Council, weight club and the FFA. Besides a scholarship, he said, he likes the facilities at Garden City and Andrew Richards, who graduated from Oberlin last year, goes to school there. He will be joined by Oberlin senior Toby Peters, who is also planning to play for Garden City.
