

Class of '10 — Decatur Community High

Several years ago members of the future Class of 2010 were asked what they wanted to be when they grew up.

While their dreams and goals might have changed some since third grade, Teacher Carol Wasson, kept what the students wrote back in grade school.

The following are what this year's graduates said they wanted to be when they grew up:

When I grow up I want to be an artist, because I can get a lot of money. I like to draw a lot of stuff like dogs, cats and other stuff. I would like to have a studio at my house.

Jaxen K. Alstrom

When I grow up I want to be a teacher. I do because I like to learn. Learning is important and we need the education for a good job. I will help the students if they need help.

Adrienne Pauls

I want to be a rancher and a farmer. It would be important because you would be cutting wheat for people that need food.

I think it would be fun working cattle. You could ride horses out into the pastures to gather cows and calves up. I would be good at it because I've grown up on a farm.

Kortnie Fisher

I would like to be a dog trainer because I like dogs. I would like to help dogs learn and feel good about themselves. I could train them to do tricks and save people.

Steve Corcoran

I want to be a marine biologist when I grow up. I want to save animals from oil spills. I will have to go to college because I don't want the animals to be extinct.

I also want to be an athlete so every one will know to be healthy and not do drugs.

Kyle Huntley

I would like to be a football player for the Tennessee Titans. I would like to play for them because some of my favorite players are on the team. All my brothers are good at football. I am really good and I really want to play.

Toby Peters

I want to be a whale trainer. I'd work with Kenzie and I'll work at the museum in Miami. It would be fun because I would train whales. I love whales!

Lakin Brown

When I grow up I want to be a race car driver. I will race a bomber for four years and a superstock for four years to. I want to be a better racer than my dad. I might work at John Deere. I would learn how to work on cars. I will put a four-sixty in my bomber. I will put a four-sixty in my superstock. I will race in certain towns.

Donovan Bauman

I want to be a veterinarian and an athlete. I want to be a veterinarian because I like animals like dogs, cats and birds.

I want to be an athlete because you get in shape. You get to see other people. It's just fun!

Daniel Jordan

I want to go to college to play football and to learn how to be a banker. I want to be a banker so I can give money to the poor. I want to make people happy being a banker and a football player. I want to play for the Dallas Cowboys. I want to be the next Troy Aikman. I want to be the manager of a bank in Dallas. I want to be a better banker than my mom.

Justin Williams

First I want to be a singer. Then I will go to vocational school to become a skateboarder. But I will still sing rap and hip hop.

I like this stuff because I'm good at it and because they're well paying jobs.

Steven Overmiller

I want to be a EMT because my dad is. I like to help people. I like to drive a car.

Ray Zodrow

I want to be a doctor when I grow up because I want to help people. My sister Ramsey gave me the idea to be a doctor because she has asthma. I want to help asthma and other illnesses and diseases.

Kira Meitl

When I grow up I want to be a teacher. Then I can help kids that need help. I want to be a teacher because I love to be with little kids. I want to be a 1st grade teacher.

Mary Olson

I want to be a scientist because I want to make lay models of the plants. I want to learn more about the plants.

Wade Juenemann

I want to be a pediatrician because I like babies. I like to make sure they don't have any illnesses.

Stephanie Bruggeman

When I grow up I want to be a medical doctor. I want to help kids who have asthma. I don't want kids to have to go through what I had to go through. My doctor encouraged me to be a doctor.

Jessica Fredrickson

I want to be in the army reserve. I want to help the United States. I would like to fight for the country.

Gatlin Reichert

When I grow up I want to be a farmer. I like to be on the farm so I can be free! I

I also like to ride horses and the four wheeler.

Nolan Wasson

When I grow up I want to be a dirt bike racer. I like dirt bike racing because it is fun and I ride my dad's dirt bike.

Kade Macfee

When I grow up I want to be a team roper because I love horses and roping. I want to be a four time world champion with my Dad Mick.

Wiley Farr
