Mother of the Year 2010 winner

My mom, Emily Williams, deserves to be Parent of the year because she is loving, caring, and really fun. Even though our family goes through tough times she is always the one that can get over things like the snap of fingers. She provides us with food, shelter, love and ever so much more. She is always so nice to my friends, and family. She supports me in anything I do. I love my mom and I think she should be parent of the year!
Sabryn

I think my sister Lauren deserves to be Parent of the year because she is one of the nicest people I know. She goes out of her way to help people. She's loving, caring and nice. She help with homework that's hard. She works hard so we have clothes, food, books, and every thing else we need. That's why she deserves to be Parent of the year.

I think my mom should be parent of the year because she is a great mother that takes on four kids even more some times. My mom is a foster parent that is always taking on new kids and challenges. We have a lot of fun together when every body is home. The kids that live with her are Megan, Lance, Shawna, and Me, but J Lynn lives in Atwood. This is why I think my mom should be parent of the year!
TyLynn

I think that my mother should be mother of the year. She cares for others and helps people who need help. She gives many people extra help when they need it. She donates to charities, volunteers for unpaying services, and every Christmas she buys gifts for a child who's parents can't afford it. I think she should be mother of the year because she is a loving and caring person.

I think my mom should be parent of the year. I think this because she has a job from 7:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. then she has to come home to four kids. She is the one who cleans the house and the person who does most of the chores. So, this is why my mom should be Parent of the Year.
Keagen

My mom and dad take me fishing. My moms scared of worms. One time my dad caught a bass. My mom caught a crappie. My little brother fell off the boat and just about lost his pole. My mom and dad should be the best parents because they spend time with me.
Dayton

I think my parents should be parents of the year because they are smarter then I am. They are also good parents. They make smart decisions unlike me. They know more because they have already went to school. My parents would be better at being parents of the year.

Why I believe my parents deserve the parents of the year. My parents are both hard working. They don't like people being mean to other people. My parents listen to my problems.
