Corrections

There were two errors in the People column in the June 9 edition of The Oberlin Herald. It said that Andy Rice is teaching golf lessons in Rhode Island. It should have been Long Island, N.Y. Also, the pool tournament which Kaydee Leitner qualified for will be the latter part of August, not last Monday. This was due to incorrect information given to the newspaper.

A story in the same edition said the county Fair Board had received a bad check from race promoter Joe Bellm. The check actually was from Bailey Brothers Circus, which had written a $100 check on a closed account. The story said the track was having a hard time getting races, but the International Motor Contest Association has been paid and the track is getting races. This was a reporter's error.

In the same edition, a story gave the wrong day of the week for the Tough Trucks competition at the county fair. The event will be Thursday, Aug. 5. The date was correct but the day of the week was wrong in the paper. Other grandstand events are Friday, Aug. 6, for the demolition derby, and Saturday, Aug. 7, for the motorcycles. This was a reporting error.

The Oberlin Herald will correct or clarify any mistake or misunderstanding in a news story. Please call our office at 475-2206 to report errors. We believe that news stories should be fair and factual, and appreciate your calling to our attention any failure to live up to this standard.
