Interim president named

Dr. Max Heim has been hired as the interim president at Colby Community College, replacing Dr. Lynn Krider, who resigned after more than a year of disagreements with the college board.
 Dr. Heim, now a consultant for the Kansas Association of School Boards, has served as superintendent of six school districts ranging in size from 45 students in Gorham to 8,500 in Junction City.
 He was a dean and professor at Mississippi State University, a professor at the University of Kansas, and a professor at Emporia State University. He also served as assistant superintendent at school districts in Manhattan, Olathe and Turner.

 Dr. Heim earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in history and education from Fort Hays State University, and a doctorate in education from the University of Kansas.
 He and his wife Mary live on a farm southeast of Russell, where they raise Gelbvieh and South Devon cattle and Dorper sheep. They have three adult children and six grandchildren. Son John, a former superintendent himself, is executive director of the state school boards group.

Corrections

A story about parent-teacher conferences in the Oct. 20 edition of The Oberlin Herald said incorrectly that there would be no school on Thursday. Actually, conferences will be held from 4:30 to 8:30 p.m. tonight (Wednesday) and from 4 to 7 p.m. on Thursday, so regular classes will be held both days. This was an editing error.
 A story about a benefit sponsored by the Oberlin Modern Woodmen for improvements at the Oberlin senior meal site said incorrectly that the concrete work would be done by Nelson Concrete. It should have said Oberlin Concrete. This was a reporter's error.

 The Oberlin Herald will correct or clarify any mistake or misunderstanding in a news story. Please call our office at 475-2206 to report errors. We believe that news stories should be fair and factual, and appreciate your calling to our attention any failure to live up to this standard.
