Basketball, wrestling get going again

The Decatur Community High girls and boys basketball teams and the wrestling squad will hit the gym again this week after a break for the holidays.

Everyone was scheduled to get going on Tuesday, as the basketball teams were to go to Norton to face the Bluejays and the wrestlers were to be home against Phillipsburg and McCook.

On Friday, the Rawlins County Buffaloes will be in Oberlin to play basketball. The girls game will start at 6:30 p.m. and the boys after that, around 8 p.m.

At 10 a.m. on Saturday, the wrestlers will be at the Franklin (Neb.) tournament.

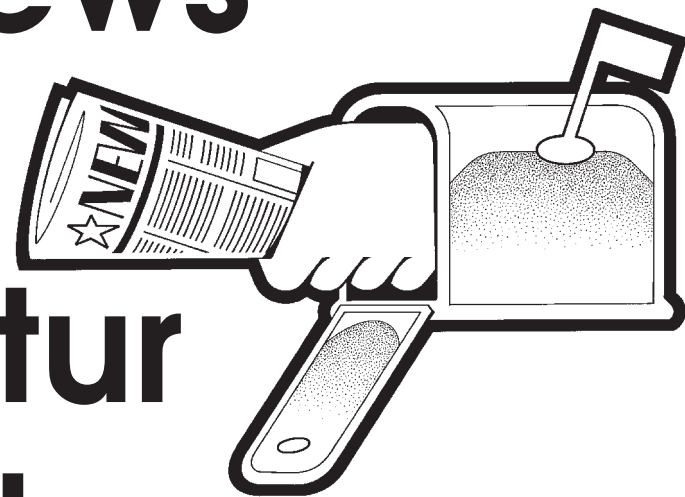

Next week, the basketball teams will be on the road again as they go to Hoxie for a 6:30 p.m. start on Tuesday and to Quinter for a 6:30 p.m. start on Friday, Jan. 14.

The wrestlers will be at home for the annual Oberlin Invitational at 10 a.m. Saturday, Jan. 15.
