Perhaps you've tried everything - diet, exercise, pills - and still the pounds accumulate.

The Center for Surgical Weight Management at Good Samaritan Hospital now offers minimally-invasive surgery that places a band around the stomach, dramatically reducing its capacity, to help you reach your weight loss goal. To position you for long-term success, your weight loss is supported through a psychological evaluation, dietary guidelines and multi-year follow-up. Check with your insurance company to see if you qualify.

Good Samaritan Hospital always seeks the best possible treatments for our patients - gastric banding is just the latest example. Innovative ways to keep you healthy are...within reach.
