Robert Louis Brown

Robert Louis Brown, 82, a native of Norcatgur, died April 10, 2011, at Mercy Regional Hospital in Manhattan.

He was born Nov. 22, 1928, in Norcatgur, the son of Robert Leslie and Lois (Lipskey) Brown.

He married Alice Mathes on Dec. 5, 1954, in Norton. He served in the U.S. Army from 1955 until 1957, and was honorably discharged with the rank of Corporal. He was an auto body instructor at the Northwest Kansas Technical College and later became a claims adjuster for 20 years at Kansas Claims until his retirement. He was a lifetime member of the Elks Lodge.

Survivors include his wife, Alice Brown, Manhattan; two daughters, Barbara Brown, Conifer, Colo., and Catherine and Gary Crossley, Wamego; a son, Anthony and Cynthia Brown, Portage, Mich.; grand-daughter; two step-grandchildren; a step-great-grandchild; four brothers-in-law, Gwynn Ward, Clayton; Bill and Rose Mathes, Norton; David and Karen Mathes, Loveland, Colo.; and Jimmy and Sherry Mathes, Branson, Mo.; and two sisters-in-law, Rosa Brown, Norton, and Pat Mathes, Colorado Springs.

He was preceded in death by his parents; a brother, Gerald Brown, and a sister, Nadine Dick.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at Enfield Funeral Home in Norton with burial at the Norton Cemetery.

Memorials were established to Via Christi Village in Manhattan and the Alzheimer's Foundation. Contributions may be sent to the funeral home, 215 W. Main, Norton, Kan., 67654.

Walter E. Cressler

Walter Ellsworth Cressler, 102, a former resident of Jennings, died April 15, 2011, at the Sheridan County Long Term Care in Hoxie.

He was born in a sod house at Tasco, on Feb. 1, 1909, the son of Walter Ellsworth and Susannah

(Russell) Cressler. He grew up in Sheridan County and attended rural school near Tasco. He worked as a laborer farming, helped build the schoolhouse at Tasco and hauled gravel while the roads were being built around Tasco and Studley, working for 27 cents an hour.

He married Ruby Letha Mowry on Feb. 25, 1928. They lived in Decatur and Sheridan counties. His wife died on July 13, 1986. After her death, he continued to live in Jennings. After his retirement, he worked for the City of Jennings and mowed the Jennings Cemetery. He moved to Ridgewood Manor in 1993, then to the Sheridan County Long Term Care in Hoxie in 2002.

Survivors include five children, Wayne and Louise Cressler, and Alfred and Betty Cressler, Jennings; Patricia and Lyle Hanson, Bartley, Neb.; Charlene and Tom Maske, Elwood, Ill.; and Debra and Keith Bowie, Dresden; 27 grandchildren, and numerous great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren.

He was also preceded in death by his parents; a son, Leslie Norman; four sisters and three brothers.

Graveside services were held Monday afternoon at the Jennings Cemetery with the Rev. Barbara Patterson officiating.

Memorials may be given to the nursing home. Contributions may be sent to Pauls Funeral Home, 121 N. Penn, Oberlin, Kan., 67749.

Jerry Joe Fear

Funeral services were held Saturday morning at Pauls Funeral Home for Jerry Joe Fear, 78, a former Oberlin city administrator, who died April 11, 2011, at the Denver Hospice Care Center in Denver.

Funeral services were held Friday morning at Enfield Funeral Home in Norton with burial at the Norton Cemetery.

A memorial was established in her name. Contributions may be sent to the funeral home, 215 W. Main, Norton, Kan., 67654.

Corrections

A sports photo on Page 6A in the April 13 edition of The Oberlin Herald incorrectly identified a runner as Zach May. The runner was Nolan Peters. This was a reporter's error.

In the same edition, a picture on Page 1A was identified as Malia Bishop. It was actually her sister Alana in the picture. This also was a reporter's error.

The Oberlin Herald will correct or clarify any mistake or misunderstanding in a news story. Please call our office at 475-2206 to report errors. We believe that news stories should be fair and factual, and appreciate your calling to our attention any failure to live up to this standard.
