THE OBERLIN HERALD $1 (tax included; 73¢ delivered at home) 22 Pages, 3 Sections Wednesday, May 18, 2011 133nd Year, Number 20

Area slowly coming out of drought

The area might slowly be pulling itself out of a drought as the La Niña conditions ally started late last year and peaked about pened recently, but at what has happened in said, it looks like things are a little better. over the Pacific Ocean have weakened, forecasters say.

Jerry Killingsworth, a meteorologist drought. with the National Weather Service office in Goodland, said it takes a long time to get out of a drought. It took a good six months to get into this one, he said, but the good news is that it looks like closer to summer, the area will be receiving closer to normal May 10, he said. rain fall.

two months ago. It's worse along and south of I-70. That area is still classified in a severe

As you go north, he said, things get a little better. From I-70 to the Nebraska line, said Mr. Killingsworth, the area is in a moderate drought.

The latest drought monitor report was

In order to look at drought numbers, methe past six months.

From October through March, said Mr. Killingsworth, the biggest rainfall deficits were from Norton to Hill City to Atwood to Quinter and southwest to Oakley.

who had just one inch for the year, instead of the normal five.

The deficit ranges are from three to four

The drought, said Mr. Killingsworth, re- teorologists look not about just what hap- inches. Towards Colby and Goodland, he corded 10.41 inches Near St. Francis and the Colorado state line, the deficit is one to two inches.

From October to March, Oberlin's deficit was about 2 1/2 inches

There has been some rainfall in the area. The biggest deficit right now is from a So far for the month, Oberlin received 1.61 cooperative observer southeast of Norton inches of rain, with the moisture for the year at 6.23. That is 4.18 inches less than for years. last vear.

A year ago this time, Oberlin had re-

While the drought isn't over, it looks like the area is turning the corner.

The root cause of the drought is the La Niña current in the South Pacific. This has been seen over and over again, he said.

Mr. Killingsworth said he doesn't think this drought will be as severe or as long as the drought in the early 2000s, which lasted

Three poachers file guilty pleas to lesser charges poaching deer in Decatur County in December have pleaded guilty to reduced charges.

John Jacobs III, 53; John Jacobs IV, 30; and Joseph Jacobs, 23, of Wisconsin all pleaded guilty to one count of commercialization of wildof unlawful possession of wildlife, a class C misdemeanor.

Each of the men will have to pay restitution of $1,000 to the Kansas Department of Wildlife and Parks, $5,000 in fines and court costs.

The men have also had their Kansas hunting licenses suspended for three years starting from the date of the judge's journal entry. Each of the entries was filed in April in the clerk of the district court's office.

The men were arrested in early December on charges of illegally

Three of the men arrested for killing trophy-size mule deer. They were arrested in the Lyle area.

Besides the three who have pleaded guilty to the reduced charges, Mark Jacobs and Paul J. Jacobs were also arrested and booked into the Decatur County Jail.

State wildlife officers seized 12 life, a class A misdemeanor, and one bucks in all, a mix of white tail and mule deer, and piled them high on a trailer which was parked that day in front of the courthouse.

Among the pile of carcasses was at least one deer that meets the requirements for a trophy buck, which means the inside spread of its antlers measured at least 22 inches.

Several days after the first arrests, charges were filed against two local men, David and Jake Swisher.

No plea has been entered by the remaining four men.

School calendar set for next year

The Oberlin School Board ap- training and two work days. proved the school calendar for the 2011-2012 year, similar to this during the year are Monday, Sept. year's schedule.

After summer break, which starts Days that the district won't have on Wednesday, May 25, school will school include:

Other scheduled training days 19, and Monday, Feb. 20.

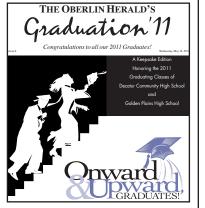

start on Friday, Aug. 19. The teachers will report back on Monday, Day.

• Monday, Sept. 5 for Labor Aug. 15, for two days of in-house (See CALENDAR on Page 5A)

Graduation section in today's paper

Inside today's Oberlin Herald is the 2011 Graduation Section, with photos and information on seniors from Decatur Community and Golden Plains high schools.

The section has pictures of the graduating seniors from both schools and details on what the students were involved in school, scholarships they've won and their plans for the future.

Seniors to graduate Sunday at high school the halls of Decatur Community Dance." Mr. Haag said there will High School one final time Sun-

The Class of 2011 will say their good-byes after graduation at 2 p.m. Sunday in the senior high gym. The doors to the gym will open at 1 p.m. for anyone who wants to get seats.

The class colors are red and white, the flower is the calla lilly, motto is "Dance to the Beat of a Different Drum" and the song is "Shadows" by Yellow Card.

As of Monday, the grade averages determining the class valedictorian and salutatorian were still too close to call, said Principal Charlie Haag.

The school choir will sing "Seasons of Love," and the DCHS

Twenty-five graduates will walk Singers will perform "I Hope You also be a couple of instrumental pieces

> Graduates are Tiffany Anderson, Bret Ashley, Nakita Bose, Rhiannon Davies, Jori Diederich, Dalton Dolan, Jordan Dreher, Zach Farr, Keithen Fortin, Katie Glading, Jacob Helm, Joseph Hirsch, Erin Jeffrey, Sara Kyte, Timothy Larson, Jacob Larue, Christifer Lines, Laysha Medina, Lacy Misek, Nolan Peters, Joshua Ritter, Jonathan Samson, Rachelle Scott, Dakota Soderlund and Carissa Wentz.

Mr. Haag said this class has been very successful. They took second in state volleyball, third in forensics and the boys basketball team played as well as they have in a long time.

The Class of 2011, he said, has provided lots of good memories.

LEVI NIXON (above) carried a large brown teddy bear Director Lisa Paulson (below) held up a fruit basket as she from Oberlin Elementary School to the Good Samaritan explained the rules to the game Fruit Basket Upset. Center last Tuesday for the Teddy Bear Picnic. Activities

- Herald staff photos by Kimberly Davis

Kids bring teddies

By KIMBERLY DAVIS

k.davis@nwkansas.com They walked in a single file line, with their colorful bears of all sizes, from the Oberlin Elementary School.

The first graders carried the teddy bears in their arms two blocks to the Decatur County Good Samaritan Center. The boys and girls brought their bears from home to join in the center's annual Teddy Bear Picnic.

Some of the bears were big, others tiny, and one stuffed animal wasn't a bear at all. One firstgrade boy brought his stuffed brown monkey instead.

Each year, first graders all team up with one of the residents at the Good Samaritan Center, said Teacher Cindy Sattler, to be First Hand Friends. The students walk to the center twice a month to read to the residents. The (See KIDS on Page 5A)

Students and staff honor their principal

AT AN OPEN HOUSE at the high school last Tuesday, Susan Nelson (left) helped cut pieces of a cake honoring Principal Charlie Haag, who is retiring at the end of the term. Mr. Haag and grandson Kyler Joel, 18 months, watched. The DCHS Singers did a song for Mr. Haag during the presentation. - Herald staff photos by Kimberly Davis

Kids attend picnic

(Continued from Page 1A) residents, said Mrs. Sattler, help the students and cheer them along as they improve their reading skills.

The students, she said, are really proud when they can read the big books and the residents praise them. Besides the benefit of reading, she said, the students also get the chance to visit with the elderly residents. Some don't have living grandparents, said Mrs. Sattler, so it's good for them to interact with older people.

At Christmas, she said, the students make little gifts for their friends. The residents also give them little gifts.

Janette Votapka started the program over 19 years ago, when she was teaching at the school, said Mrs. Sattler.

Last Tuesday, the students and residents got together for the last time this school year. The kids brought their teddy bears for a picnic.

They sat in a circle on the floor while the residents sat in chairs in the front dining room watching the kids. The students ate "teddy bear" crackers and drank water before they played Fruit Basket Upset.

Before they left the center, activities director Lisa Paulson told the students they are welcome to come read to "their" residents over the summer.

Technical College plans 46th graduation ceremony on Friday

Northwest Technical College will cel- control. ebrate the 46th annual commencement at 1:30 p.m. on Friday at Max Jones Fieldhouse, where 155 students will receive technical certificates and associate degrees.

The commencement program will include opening remarks by College Presi- man of the board for 10 of those years. dent Dr. Ed. Mills, and a welcome by Dick

Frank Otter, chairman of the board of control, will introduce the commencement speaker, Mark Smith of Wallace County. Smith served on the Northwest Technical College board for 30 years, and was chair-He is a farmer and rancher in the Wallace Short, vice-chairman of the area board of County and Greeley County area, as well sociation, and was Past President of Kansas Nonamaker, Goodland. Livestock Association. As member of Na-Committee.

Following the speaker will be a song tech student.

as owner, operator of the famous Pleasant "The Climb" by Cosmetology vocalists Valley Ranch located in Sharon Springs. Amber Beougher of Oakley, Vanessa He is a member of Kansas Livestock As- Jaynes, Canon City, Colo., and Kamisha

College Counselor Paul Chaffin will tional Cattleman's Beef Association, he was present the Students of the Year nominees asked to be on the association's Executive and announce the winner. Those nominated include Jance McKee of Brewster, a diesel

The alumni speaker will be Christine Smith, associate director of development and career service.

Dr. Mills will give some closing remarks and the graduates will march out to the recessional "Pomp and Circumstance" by Pastor Carol Edling Jolly.

*Calendar set for new school year

(Continued from Page 1A) • Friday, Oct. 28, for state voleyball.

• Wednesday, Nov. 23 through Friday, Nov. 25, for Thanksgiving. • Friday, Dec. 23, through Monday, Jan. 2, for Christmas break.

•Monday, March 12, through Fri- Monday, Oct. 17, Monday, Nov. 14, day, March 16, for spring break. • Friday, April 6, and Monday, and Monday, April 16. April 9 for Easter.

west Kansas League track meet. Late-start days are scheduled for and Wednesday, Feb. 6 and 8.

Monday, Dec. 12, Monday, Jan. 16

Parent-teacher conferences are • Friday, May 11 for the North- scheduled for Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 25 and 26, and Monday

Work night set to paint Sappa shelter will get a paint job tonight with the help of money from the Modern Woodmen of America and a bunch of volunteers.

The work night starts at 5:30 p.m. at the park, east of town. Volunteers are welcome. The Sappa Park Committee will have other doing a matching raffle. Board rooms at Sappa Park. Committee things for volunteers to work on members have until the end of members include Gary Anderson, ing for $500 in paint to redo the areas of the shelter house that have been painted before.

The original color has been third $25. matched as closely as possible, she said

The Sappa Park Shelter house member Kimberly Davis, is pay- June 29, at 805 E. Frontier Parkway, the Marie McKisson home.

The-first place winner will take home $100, second place $50 and

The committee can sell up to $2,500 in tickets to win a match-The Modern Woodmen are also ing $2,500 to help pay for bath-June to sell tickets at one for $1 Connie Riedel, Amy Carman. The Oberlin Camp of the Mod- or six for $5. The drawing will be Rick Pauls, Becky Ayers and Mrs.

The Decatur County Hospital will sponsor its annual community walk at Sappa Park starting at 4:30 p.m. Thursday.

Run/Walk starting at 6 p.m.

AdDesimer

THE OBERLIN HERALD

170 S. Penn. • Oberlin, KS • 785-475-2206

Hospital fun walk planned for Sappa Park

Decatur County emergency medical technicians will be grilling hot therapist Deb Klima at (785) 475-The walk will go until 7 p.m. with dogs, provided, along with water anoncompetitive 5K Lake Trail Fun and an appreciation gift, by the hospital for all participants.

For questions, call respiratory 2208.

besides painting

ern Woodmen, said committee held at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Davis.

Occupational Therapy at Community Hospital

Ordinary activities can sometimes require extraordinary occupational therapy!

The Oberlin Herald, an award-winning weekly newspaper, is looking for a FULL OR PART-TIME AD DESIGNER.

Knowledge of InDesign preferred.

Call Cynthia Haynes, Publisher or Kim Davis, Assistant Publisher for more information at 785-475-2206.

Help Wanted

Therapy Services: Simple tasks like pouring a cup of coffee can become Hand and upper impossible for someone who has suffered a stroke or serious extremity injuries

Stroke rehabilitation

Occupational

- * Work-related training and techniques
- Ergonomic evaluations
- Cognitive and memory rehabilitation
- Spinal cord and brain injury rehabilitation
- Sensory processing disorder
- Routine activity assistance
- Patient and family education

REHABILITATION CENTER This Institution is an Equal Opportunity Provider, and Employer injury. But with the help of Community Hospital's occupational therapists, many patients can regain several everyday skills.

Area resident Don Rockwell faced these types of challenges about his interests, an individualized care plan was developed.

after he had a stroke. After visiting his home and learning

Today, Don is more independent, pouring his own coffee,

Contact us today to learn more about how Occupational Therapy can help people resume many everyday activities.

COMMUNITY

HOSPITAL

Advanced care. Always there.

mowing his lawn and doing light farm chores.