There's still time to sign up for summer ball

You can still get on a summer baseball team, but time is running out. Forms need to be turned in to the county clerk's office by Thursday.

The forms can be picked up at the clerk's office in the courthouse or at the school office at either Decatur Community High or Oberlin Elementary and returned to the clerk's office. The summer softball schedule is also being made up.

Anyone who wants to form a team should pay the $150 fee at the clerk's office by Friday so that a schedule can be assembled.
