Corrections

The story about the Helping Hands for Health Care garage sale in the May 26 issue of The Oberlin Herald said that the sale would be held from 5 to 8 p.m. on Friday, June 4 at the old Hansen Mueller office. It should have been from 5 to 8 p.m. on Friday, June 3, and from 8 a.m. to 12 noon on Saturday, June 4. This was a reporter's error.

Officers arrest 26 at drug bust

After a months-long investigation, local cops and the Kansas Bureau of Investigation arrested 26 people on drug charges and impounded several vehicles on Monday, May 23 and Tuesday, May 24, and more may be coming.

Colby Police Chief Randy Jones said the KBI along with police and sheriff's departments from Thomas, Logan, Rawlins and Sherman Counties have been conducting an undercover drug investigation in Northwest Kansas for six months.

Jones said the investigation culminated in a series of search and arrest warrants that were executed Monday and Tuesday. The KBI's Crime Scene Unit van could be seen outside several homes in Colby as investigators and sheriff's deputies made the arrests and searched the homes.

Jones said law enforcement executed five search warrants for illegal drugs and "documents associated with the distribution of illegal drugs." The searches turned up various amounts of illegal drugs and money, which officers seized. About 10 vehicles were seized in connection with the case.

Sixteen arrest warrants were executed, and 10 additional cases were sent to the Logan, Rawlins and Sherman County attorneys, so they could reviewed for possible criminal charges. Jones said the investigation still ongoing, and more arrests are likely.

No other details are being released until formal charges can be brought in district courts.
