Baseball takes center field

LITTLE LEAGUE

The Oberlin Little League baseball teams squared off last Tuesday as Fredrickson Insurance won a pair, downing Farmers Bank and Trust 25-14 and Crop Production Services 20-13.

Farmers came back, however, and ended the night with a 1-1 record as it edged Oberlin Well Service 17-16.

This week on Tuesday, Fredrickson was to face Oberlin Well in the first game, Crop Production versus Farmers Bank in the second then Crop Production against Oberlin in the nightcap.

Next Tuesday, Fredrickson will play Farmers at 6:30 p.m., Crop Production will play Fredrickson at 7:30 p.m. and Farmers will play Oberlin Well at 8:30 p.m.

BANTAM

Oberlin’s Bantam team split a doubleheader with Atwood last Tuesday in front of the home crowd. Oberlin won the first game 5-1 but dropped the second 9-1.

On Tuesday, Oberlin was to play Atwood again, this time in Atwood.

At 6:30 p.m. Monday, the Oberlin players will be in Phillipsburg.

CO-ED

Pioneer Seed was the big winner in co-ed softball on Thursday, beating Ginger Power in two games. Pioneer won the first match 26-4 and the second, 18-8.

Bank Gold and Unger Chiropractic split a doubleheader, with Black Gold winning the first by a nose, 25-24, and Unger taking the second in fine fashion, 20-10.

On Thursday, Unger will take on Ginger Power at 6:30 p.m. and Pioneer will take on Black Gold at 8:30 p.m.

Then on Sunday, Co-op will play Black Gold at 6 p.m. and Sappa Valley Construction will meet Unger at 8 p.m.

T-BALL

The T-ballers don’t keep score, but last Tuesday, Raye’s Grocery played Oberlin Livestock and The Bank played Hansen Mueller.

On Tuesday, it was to be Oberlin Livestock against The Bank and Raye’s versus Hansen Mueller.

Next Tuesday, Raye’s will take on The Bank at 6:30 p.m. and Oberlin Livestock will face Hansen Mueller at 7:30 p.m.
