Corrections

A story about an Oberlin man who was injured in a shotgun accident in the Wednesday, June 22, edition of The Oberlin Herald said Colt Diederich had leaned his gun against the back of his pickup. Relatives said Mr. Diederich was holding the gun with his left hand with the butt of the gun on the tailgate. He turned to talk with someone, and the gun swiveled off the tailgate, slipping through his hand to the ground and went off. The error was due to conflicting information given to the newspaper.
