POLICE BLOTTER

The Oberlin Police Department worked these calls last week:

•Arrested Adrian Overmiller, 23, for shoplifting Sunday. Police Chief Wade Lockhart said the complaint said Mr. Overmiller took cough syrup from Dollar General. He was booked into the Decatur County Jail.

•Arrested Elizabeth Cooper, 49, for domestic battery on Sunday after getting a call to the 900 block of West Victoria around 6:30 p.m. She was booked into the jail also.

• Found that several buildings at the Decatur County Fairground had been entered. Chief Lockhart said he was driving through the fairgrounds Monday morning and noticed a window on the west side broken out of the 4-H building. He said a door on the building had been also forced open. Someone also entered the merry-go-round building, a ticket booth, the concession stand and the commercial building where the booths are set up during the fair. Chief Lockhart said he's not sure if anything is missing yet.

He added that he noticed a large overhead door open on one of the buildings on Friday and shut it, but didn't see anything else at that time.

Markets

Monday closing markets

Corrections

Figures in the Special Projects column of the annual financial statement for the City of Jennings on Page 8A of the Jan. 22 issue of The Oberlin Herald were incorrect with the exception of the balance. This was the result of a make-up error at the newspaper. The budget is reprinted correctly on Page 11.
