Scholars take sixth at state meet

By EMILY BADER
The Oberlin Red Devil Scholar Bowl team placed fifth at the State Scholar Bowl held Feb. 11 at Ell-Saline High School in Brookville. Representing Oberlin were senior Nolan Henningson; juniors Miki Dorshorst, Matthew Helm and Elizabeth Nedland; and freshmen Caleb Koerperich and Sierra Lohofener. The team's coach is Marlene Moxter.

35, Inman 40 to 30, and Immaculata 60 to 40.

Inman took first, followed by Prairie Village, second; WaKeeney, third; and Immaculata, fourth. Oberlin, fifth; and Jefferson County North, sixth.

"I feel the team did a great job," said Nolan. "We were really competitive and happy we made it this far."

After the tournament, Principal Ben Jimenez and Activities Director Joe Dreher received a letter from John Phillips, the athletic director from Immaculata High School.

Mr. Phillips wrote, "Although every team there performed well and represented their school excellently, I was most impressed with your students. Not only did they perform well in the academic part of the event, but their sportsmanship and friendliness did not go unnoticed."

"Obviously, our schools are far apart, so scheduling any regular season contests with you is a long shot to say the least. But if we ever see your school's name on any post-season schedule, I can assure you that we will look forward to competing against a school that has students with such great character and sportsmanship..."

"Your students and coach should be proud of themselves for the way they represented your school..."

Junior high students do well at festival
