The story of Barnabas, also known as the Son of Encouragement, was the story used at LaDonnia Lindgren's Memorial on Monday morning. Words of truth and comfort were spoken to a room filled with family and residents who had come to say farewell to a lovely lady who had only been with us a short time, but she had quickly become known as a great encourager to those who knew and cared for her. Lisa Paulson brought the message and Anita Hirsch sang.

On Friday, we had a second memorial this time for Doris Marintzer. She had lived at the Good Sam for many years. Town Square was filled to overflowing with her nine children and their families. Many wonderful memories were shared and she will be greatly missed. Janice Shobe delivered the message and Tina Perrin and the Good Sam Choir sang.

It has been difficult for both the staff and the Residents: the Memorials have been far too frequent lately. But when we go to God's Word and stand on the promises found within, we are comforted knowing that for those who put their faith in Christ Jesus, they have left us, but have gone to see the King! For the rest of us life goes on Francis and Leone Porsch enjoyed dinner together to celebrate their wedding anniversary. Joe Hirsch returned from college, making Good Sam a priority visit. He brought a special project he put together for History Buffs Club, a 100 Year Time Line presentation in honor of Earl Brown and Myrtle Waldo, our two 100-year-old residents. His presentation, coupled with their personal accounts, made history come alive!

What a blessing. Thank you, Joe! Artsy Craftsy Club members welcomed Spring by painting sweet little bird houses. They will decorated their feathered friend's houses with beads and bobbles to make them even more special at the next class. Bible Study learned the proper way to Admonish One Another. The ladies were excited to hear the report that they have filled six of their 10 film canisters for the Feed My Starving Children Campaign. They have set their goal at 10 canisters providing 240 meals. If you would like to contribute bring your quarters to Amy Rehm.

The Annual Hoe Down was another huge success! Cindy Sauder Sloan would like to thank her awesome committee members and the community for a great time and for surpassing last year's proceeds. An official final amount will be forthcoming!

This week's guests were: Kenny and Phyllis Wilkinson for Vera Kacirek. Jeanette Diederich, Pat

Kathy Van Meter and Lloyd Frandsen enjoyed the annual supper, auction and dance at the Community Hall in Cambridge, Neb., provided by the Tri-Valley Health System. Music was by Lonnie Lynn and his nine-piece band from Lincoln, Neb.

Veda and Dennis Wood visited Dwight and Teresa Wood in McCook on Friday. Dwight had his dialysis, we had a lunch and then his music group left for Lincoln where they had two engagements. Teresa is doing health care for different families; very busy lady. She was to celebrat her birthday on Tuesday.

June Jolly played cards at Indianola, Neb., on Wednesday, played Bingo on Thursday, then on Friday she and Karen Brown went to the Fireman's fund raiser in Culbertson and played Bingo. She is doing water aerobics on Saturdays, which sounds like fun. As the old saying goes, "All work and no fun would make June a dull girl", or something like that. No danger of that.

David Huff and his mother, Donna, were at his place west of Lyle getting his house ready for occupancy, and visited Toots Magers on Friday. Judy and Charlie Easton visited Toots on Sunday.

We had a good service at Lyle Sunday morning. We always love having Dewayne Jackson's family, and we were glad to have Larry Van Otterloo, his son, Larry, Mary, and daughters, Aubrey and Taylor.

We have been unable to find information on how C.J., Carol Woodmansee's daughter is, but pray she is recovering.

Remember the Sunrise Service at Lyle on Easter Sunday, April 8, at 6:30 a.m., followed by breakfast in the Community Building.
