POLICE BLOTTER

The Oberlin Police Department worked these calls:

- Malinda VanPelt reported that between 10:30 p.m. last Monday and 1 a.m. last Tuesday, someone took a black bag from her truck, parked outside Eagle Convenience Store at the corner of U.S. 36 and U.S. 83. The bag contained her blood-sugar testing machine with supplies and medication. It was found intact last Wednesday by David Eskew when he moved a vehicle parked at the old Star Motel on U.S. 36. Chief Wade Lockhart said he has no suspects in the case.

- Shelby Brown, 105 S. York reported that a large flat-screen television valued at $900 had been taken from her home sometime on May 12. There was no forced entry and the case is under investigation, said Patrolman Bret Marietta.

Corrections

A story about the Ladybug Picnic for all girls from pre-kindergarten through eighth grade in the May 23 issue of The Oberlin Herald said incorrectly that the cost is $5 per person. The cost is actually for each girl and the fee includes their families. Registration forms should be left at Raye's Grocery or Dollar General by Friday. For details, call Becky Ayers at (785) 259-6743. This was a reporter's error.
