

Jennings News

By Louise Cressler

Attention Jennings Citizens: The proposed budget for Jennings was published in the July 18 edition of The Oberlin Herald. You will notice there is a 4.5 percent increase in the mill levy. A drop in the valuation accounts for some of the increase. The remainder of the increase is necessary because the employee benefits account is getting low on funds. City Attorney Steve Hirsch is willing to be present at the next City Council meeting at 7 p.m. on Monday, Aug 6, at 7 p.m. if anyone has questions or comments or wants to discuss the budget. If you would like to meet with him and the council, please notify Mayor Hartzog at 678-3010 prior to the meeting date. Otherwise the budget will be approved as printed. Mr. Hirsch will also be in Jennings from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Thursday, Aug 2, at The Bank.

Jessica and Chris Jaeger, Nashville, Tenn., are the parents of a baby girl, Emerson Caroline, born on July 16. She weighed 5 pounds and is 18 inches long. Her grandparents are Troy and Anne LaRue and Ted and Susan Jaeger, all of Fulton, Mo. Great-grandparents are Martin and Darlene LaRue, Jennings, and Neill and Miriam Farrington, Denver. This is Martin and Darlene LaRue's first great-grandchild.

Card players Wednesday were: Agnes Wahlmeier, Carol Carter, Eleanor Morel, Diane Carter, Ann Szweisitis, Stan Shaw, Ramona Shaw, Wayne Cressler, Scott Taylor and Louise Cressler. Everyone is welcome to come play cards on Wednesdays at 1:30 p.m.

A beautiful baptismal service was held Sunday at the United Methodist Church. Danyel Jeffery was baptized and Clint Krizek reaffirmed his baptism. Both joined the church. We welcome them into the Jennings church.

Glenda Johnson has been in the Hays Medical Center following heart surgery. She will be moved to the Norton hospital this week. Tables are still available to rent for the Craft Fair to be held during Firemen's Fun Day on Aug. 25. Contact Terri Hanke at (785) 678- 2333 if you would like a table.

Russell Cressler, Bison, and Mary Kinser, rural Jennings, visited his parents, Wayne and Louise Cressler on Saturday.

Did everyone read the prayer for rain in last week's paper? Well, it worked for Norcat, and we are all thankful for it. I'm wondering, though, if it would lessen our chances for rain if we just left out the sentence that says we want it to, "crackity-BAM so fast and furious you can't tell which flash goes with which peal of thunder." That is a little rough for chickens like me.

Joyce Sumner came home after her surgery in Wichita then had to be hospitalized again in the Norton hospital where she is at this time.

Kathy Van Meter has finally seen some improvement. She is able to eat and is feeling better. Lloyd Frandsen's daughter treated Kathy and Lloyd to supper and a party for his 83rd birthday.

Enjoyed a visit with Helen Helm at Cedar Living Center in Oberlin.

Merlin Wood reported that he spent last weekend in the hospital in Fort Pierce, Fla. June Jolly attended her KT Club on Thursday. She took pies and helped at the Eagles, played Bingo at Culbertson, and on Saturday treated her family to dinner at the Looking Glass Restaurant.

Tielia High has been ill for a while, has undergone tests, and is better. She had a party for Aubrey's seventh birthday at the Elden Auker Park in Norcat on Sunday. Carol and John Moye with Kylie and Skylar; Wade and Vicki Bader and Isabell, Karli, and Rowan; Emily, Mariah and Garrett Bader, Grant Slater; and Dennis and Veda Wood were guests. Virgil Price was taken to the hospital in Kearney, Neb., and we haven't heard any news.

Toots Magers' company on Sunday were Pam and Mike Posson, Denver; Jane Engelhardt, Norton; and Judy and Charlie Easton, Quinter.
