Tickets still available for golf tournament

There's still time to buy tickets for the Decatur County Hospital's Hospital Benefit on Saturday at the Oberlin American Legion Hall.

Today is the last day to buy the $30 supper tickets at the hospital. Administrator Lynn Doeden said the menu includes prime rib, new red potatoes, salad, a vegetable and dessert.

At 8:30 a.m. Saturday, 26 four-member teams will start their golf games at the Country Club east of town.

At the dinner, which begins at 7 p.m., said Mrs. Doeden, will be both silent and live auctions. Items include a Kansas State University football, a University of Kansas basketball and other sports memorabilia.

Raffle tickets are on sale for a three-minute shopping spree sponsored by Raye's Grocery and the Decatur County Hospital Board, a Junior Trager grill and an Olmar putter. Tickets cost six for $5 or one for $1. Winners don't have to be present to win.

Mrs. Doeden said the money raised will go for remodeling a chemotherapy treatment room, which will help the hospital in becoming a part of the University of Kansas' Midwest Cancer Alliance.
