SHERIFF'S BLOTTER

The Decatur County sheriff's office reported the following call

• Undersheriff Allen Marcum said the department found a stray cow near Herndon that was sold last Monday, Oct.29. The black cow weighed about 950 to 1,000 pounds. If you think this may be yours, he said, then you should call the sheriff's department at (785) 475-8100. If you correctly describe the cow and its branding, then you'll get the money. He declined to say how much the cow sold for.

"Normally," he said, "they keep them and advertise that they found Marc C. McKinney to Oberlin a stray before it's sold, but it was extremely unruly and they didn't want to house it longer than they had to, so the sheriff's office gave them tricia Stapp, Lots 15-18, Blk. 22, authorization to sell it."
