Speech team takes second in Oakley

By LARA ZODROW

The Oberlin speech team finished in second place as a team at the Oakley Invitational Speech Tournament on March 5. The Quinter speech team took first.

Students who competed were Ganon Henningson, Cassidy Shields, Matt Glading, Molly Jansonius, Kaine Fredrickson, Miki Dorshorst, Elizabeth Nedland, Cassandra Canto, Ryan May, Morgan Jansonius, KeAnn Jacobs, Garrett Scott, Baron Green, Jalyn Shaw, Meghan Davies and Matthew Helm.

Ganon took first with his humorous solo, which is qualified for State. Ganon summarized his Solo this way. "In my humorous solo, I am a younger brother hiding under my sister's bed and waiting for her to come home so I can scare her for revenge. While hiding under her bed, she comes into her room with her boyfriend. Things start heating up in her bedroom with her and her boyfriend. I swallow a spider and get caught screaming out of fear. Then while they are confronting me, I spit out the spider and scare them that way. It was a success story either way."

2012 State Champions Cassidy and Matt competed for the first time this year and took second in Improvised Duet Acting, qualifying them for state. Cassidy said, "Glading and I do well because we get lucky with our draws, and we've also been doing this for three years now, so we re-use a lot of our ideas. We prepare during our 30 minutes prep time. During that time we spend most of it standing around, then in like the last 10 minutes we usually whip something together! It's pretty fun, and we have a good time."

Miki took second in poetry qualifying for state and fifth in her serious solo. Her poetry selection this year is a piece called, "Rubber Houses" by Ellen Yeomans. It's about a girl named Kit, who is very close to her younger brother, Buddy. When Buddy gets cancer, her world falls apart.

Elizabeth took second in extemp, Molly and Morgan took third in their duet, Ryan took fourth in oration and sixth in extemp.

Cassandra took fifth in prose, and Molly and Kaine took fifth in Improvised Duet Acting.
