Kid wrestlers go to state

Three out of six Oberlin youth wrestlers who attended the state tournament in Topeka last weekend won their matches on Friday and advanced to the finals Saturday. Reece Grafel placed fourth in the age 8 and under, 67 pound division and Kel Grafel placed fifth in the 12 and under, 85 pounds. Rowdy Farr did not place, but won all his matches on Friday.

Corbin Wessel, age 8 and under, 70 pounds; Dawson Kempf, 10 and under, 76 pounds; and Gavon Uehlin, age 10 and under, 95 pounds, won trips to the state tournament by placing in the top four of their weight and age categories at the district tournament in Dodge City the week before, said organizer Amanda Grafel.
