

'Dr. Evil' to visit school

By CASSIDY SHIELDS

Dr. Evil comes to the Decatur Community High stage this Saturday and Sunday in the play "Dr. Evil and the Basket of Kittens."

The play is about a scientist named Dr. Evil (played by Caleb Koerperich) who is trying to get the Council of Evil to pay for his latest sinister plot. Things, however, are thrown awry when a basket of kittens mysteriously shows up on this doorstep. When Dr. Evil tries to destroy the kittens in an attempt to salvage his evil reputation, mayhem ensues.

The entire play is narrated by author Mary Shelly (Elizabeth Nedland) and Frankenstein (Regent Erickson).

The play is directed by Deedre Frasier.

"The kids are really getting into it and are both excited and nervous about the upcoming production," said Miss Frasier. "Everyone should come to the play because it is funny."

There are villains, vampires, mummies, hunchbacks, witches, were-hyenas and Garrett Scott in a kilt."

Other cast members include, Frank Jr. (Konnor Witt), Shirley (Morgan Jansonius), Inferna (Miki Dorshorst), Margo (Ara Marine), Unna (Ganon Henningson), Sylva (Sarah Macki), Countess Gothma (Molly Jansonius), Pierce (Austin Hendrickson), Weather Reporter (Daniel Lerew), Mummy (Sarah Macki), Annie (Brittany Urban),

WHEN YOU'RE DOING a fun play, you need to have some fun doing the scenery. That's just what was happening over at the high school as Daniel Lerew prepared to "help" Sara Macki (left) and Meghan Davies do some painting. — Herald staff photo by Stephanie DeCamp

Lord Warhammer (Garrett Scott), Archduchess Arsenica (Alexandra Waterman), Prince Vladi (Zach Macki), Bomb (voiceover-Adam Macki), Momma Cher Were (KeAnn Jacobs), Papa Tuppa Were (Jude Walinder), Child (Daniel Lerew), and Mother (Ara Marine). Miss Frasier said she chose this play because it is funny, and she could see some of the students fitting certain characters very well. For example, Morgan Jansonius is hysterical as Shirley, the hunchback who has a tick.

The play is Saturday at 7:30 p.m. and Sunday at 3 p.m.

Before heading to the play on Saturday, be sure to check out the Fourth Annual Wax Museum, presented by the eighth-grade history class, in the high school gym and the History Club's taco bar in the cafeteria.

The wax museum and the taco bar will be from 5:30 p.m. to 7 p.m.

History to come alive

The eighth-grade history class will present its wax museum on Saturday prior to the high school play.

Each eighth grader chose an historical figure to research. The students then had to write and memorize the biography of their character.

They will dress as their characters and present their projects from 5:30 to 7 p.m. Saturday in the high school gym.

This is the fourth year for the wax museum and they have several new characters this year, said history teacher J.D. Johnson.

Some of the new historical figures you will meet include Robert Gray, played by Quinton Cook; Barbara Fritchie, played by Cerys Davies; and Helena Rubinstein, played by Carmen Winder.

The History Club will be having a taco bar with tacos, chips, dessert and a drink for a donation in the cafeteria at the same time.

So before heading to the play, stop by the cafeteria for supper and the gym for some living history.
