

Herndon News

By Julie Hafner

Sarah, Aaron, Gideon, Isaiah and Genesis White, Norton, were Saturday visitors of Dave and Judy Ketterl. Adam and Angela Ketterl of Atwood were brief visitors in the late afternoon.

St. Mary's Christian Mothers Altar Society will hold their meeting following Mass on Sunday. All women of the parish are invited to attend.

Jackie Votapka, Clifton, and Julie Hafner enjoyed lunch at the LandMark in Oberlin on Saturday. Jackie visited family in Oberlin and attended a birthday party in the afternoon before returning home.

Rachel Grafel spent the weekend with her parents, Kyle and Cindi Grafel. They all attended the performance of the Rawlins County High School Concert Show Choir on Saturday night in Atwood.

Traveling north of Herndon on Highway 117, the eye will notice two burros making their home at the Jerry Niemeth farmstead. This sanctuary may be temporary as they have traveled around the neighborhood in recent weeks. Donkeys are the forgotten equine so if driving by, be sure to take some carrots and give these animals a little attention. Jerry said they love hanging out by the fence and might even show-off a little for you.

Theresa Rippe, Wyatt Rippe, Lindsey Meixner and Michelle Stevens joined Kevin and Megan Rippe and family at the Creative Movements Gymnastic Invitational meet in Atwood on Saturday. With a "Parade of Gymnasts" beginning the day, 194 gymnasts from Atwood, Oberlin, St. Francis, Goodland and Colby competed in several areas. Along with performing various tumbles, cartwheels, head stands and other routines in their individual classes, Lilly Rippe competed in an optional routine and Michaela and Allison Rippe performed in the "Synchronized Performance" division. It was a busy day for the students and a fun, exciting day for family and friends.

Ron and Cindy Sattler visited Diane Ruppert over the weekend to celebrate Megan's 18th birthday. They enjoyed cake and ice cream. Dana, Payton, Pacyie and Parker Juenemann of Atwood were Saturday evening supper guests. After supper they checked for new baby calves with Papa and petted his favorite bull before heading home.

Lindsay Davis, Humboldt, Iowa, is visiting Justin, Jennifer and Mason Davis this week. Lindsay will enjoy spending all week with Mason while mom and dad work. Sunday lunch guests there were Ron and Peach Beims, Herndon, and Fred and Connor Beims, Ulysses.

Alan and Ann Solko, Sharon Ecker, Pat Solko, Rachelle Solko, Herndon; Jane Waterman, Atwood, and Mary Padgett, McCook, attended the Rawlins County Show Choir Concert Saturday evening. John Solko and Jake Williams represented Herndon in the choir. The show was deemed a huge success with choir members sharing their obvious talents. The delicious dinner was prepared by the school cooking staff and served by the choir members.

Julie's Memory Joggers The Citizen Patriot Sept. 12, 1963 The Wurm Reunion

The annual Wurm reunion which is held every year on the first Sunday of September was held at the Legion Hall in Oberlin on Sept. 1. There were relatives and friends from six different states, the largest so far, met at noon with potluck dinner. The afternoon and evening were spent socially. April is Occupational Therapy Month

Our Dynavision machine improves sight-to-response skills

Our Occupational Therapists can help you master

the tasks of everyday life!

Hand therapy improves dexterity, and reduces arthritis and carpal tunnel pain.

Routine activities are practiced in our independent living skills unit.

Kids improve sensory and motor skills, and learn ADD and ADHD coping techniques.

Simple tasks like doing laundry, writing a note, or turning a key are major parts of our daily routine. When illness, injury or disability makes routine tasks difficult, Community Hospital's occupational therapy team can help.

We help patients of every age to improve muscle tone, coordination and motor skills, increase reflexes and response time, and so much more. Our facility even features an apartment-like area equipped with household appliances, where patients can practice the ordinary, extraordinary tasks of the daily routine.

Shirley B. Hayward, Deceased.
Re: Shirley B. Hayward Revocable Trust
dated July 25, 1995, as amended.
TO ALL PERSONS CONCERNED:

You are hereby notified that Shirley B. Hayward, a resident of Decatur County, Kansas, died on March 21, 2013. The decedent was the settlor of a trust known as the Shirley B. Hayward Revocable Trust (the "Trust") created by trust agreement dated July 25, 1995, as amended. Charles L. Frickey is now serving as the successor trustee of the Trust and has the power to pay the outstanding debts of the decedent from the Trust upon receipt of proper proof thereof. In accordance with K.S.A. 58a-818, creditors of the decedent must present such claims to the trustee in writing within the later of four (4) months from the date of the first publication of this notice or thirty (30) days after receipt of actual notice from the trustee to creditors known or reasonably ascertainable by the trustees. If a creditor fails to present such claims within such prescribed time period, the creditor will be forever barred against the trustee and the Trust property.
