Corrections

A story in the Decatur Dictator section of the Wednesday, May 8, issue of The Oberlin Herald, reported incorrectly that Elizabeth Nedland received a II rating at the state music festival. She received a I. The mistake was due to incorrect information supplied to the newspaper.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

In the Town Crier section on Page 2A of the same issue, the Oberlin senior recital was listed on Sunday when it should have been on Saturday, May 11. This was an editing error.

POLICE BLOTTER

The Oberlin Police Department worked the following calls last week:

• A felony theft was committed between April 25 and 27, when juvenile guests of Rhonda Fisher, 32, and Jeremy Kisner, 36, of Oberlin, allegedly left town with $3,000 worth of possessions from their home at 107 S. York Ave. Police Chief Troy Haas said that the Oberlin Police Department is working with the department in Grand Junction, Colo., where the suspects are believed to be, to resolve the case.

• A separate theft report, also believed to be the work of these juveniles, said Chief Haas, was taken when Samantha Wrinkles, 19, Oberlin, said that her cell phone went missing about the same time. The phone was worth $270, she reported, and is believed to have been taken from 102 N. Elk Ave.

• A fender-bender was reported at 4:55 p.m. Friday, May 3, when Stephanie Stone, 22, Oberlin, backed her 1989 Chevy pickup from a driveway in the 700 block of North Neill Avenue and accidentally struck a parked, unoccupied 2010 Pontiac belonging to Linda Wade of Oberlin. Miss Stone said that she did not see the car. Chief Haas said she was given a ticket for improper backing.
